Donna (Younkin) Logan's Notebooks

In memory of Donna (Younkin) Logan
January 4, 2006

From the late 1980s until 1996, Donna (Younkin) Logan organized her research findings into three-ring binders devoted to many of the earliest Younkin pioneers of southwestern Pennsylvania: Henry, Jacob, Frederick, John, Herman as well as Rudolph of Ohio, and cousins in Northampton County, PA. After Donna's untimely death on January 4, 2006, Donna's sister Jean entrusted genealogist Mark A. Miner with Donna's three-ring binders. The expectation was that Younkin cousins would scan the binders in high resolution and share the binders electronically and widely.

Donna's sister Jean and her husband Jim Miller initially scanned the four volumes of Jacob Younkin books. From 2018 to 2020, many Younkin cousins helped with the scanning of thousands of pages in Donna's other three-ring binders. Linda Marker of Rockwood, PA placed the resulting folders of JPEG graphic image files in a OneDrive folder. She distributed links to the OneDrive folder online at the National Younkin Younken Youngkin Family Reunion page on Facebook.

In late 2024, Mark T. Youngkin combined hundreds of image files in each scanned book folder creating one PDF file for each of Donna's nine notebook binders or books. He added a cover page, links page, and index, if available, then compressed each PDF book file to a manageable size. He placed the nine reduced size PDF files in a OneDrive folder with the link to the folder distributed in a Facebook document and uploaded the PDF files to the Internet Archive.

These Younkin files were uploaded to Linda's one drive account, and will be available as long as the account is paid. This is a Microsoft account and will allow you to view, and download.

Remember, this is Donna's life work, her passion. Please respect that.

And, please remember the many hours of mind-numbing scanning went into the preservation of her work.

Jacob Younkin Books The Jacob files were lovingly scanned by Donna's sister Jean, and her husband, Jim Miller. There are four volumes, and 2 pages of explanations.

Finding Families: Census, Land and Related Records

Census records -- particularly the later schedules -- and land records are two sources which may help you to determine family relationships. Because families tended to live near relatives, you also may find your ancestor's parents; grandparents; siblings; or aunts, uncles and cousins living nearby when you scan census records or dig into land records. Census records and land records also help you to find your ancestor in a particular location, so that you can then know where to search for vital and other records.

State Census Records

There are no state census records for West Virginia.

Federal Census Schedules

Because West Virginia didn't separate from Virginia to become a state until 1863, pre-state federal census records are found with Virginia's census schedules. Unfortunately, all of Virginia's 1790 census and all of Virginia's 1800 census dealing with western Virginia have been lost.

Virginia's 1790 census has been reconstructed using state tax lists. The most recent attempt is The 1787 Census of Virginia, which is a three-volume compilation of 1787 tax lists. Included are the western Virginia counties of Berkeley, Greenbrier, Hampshire, Harrison, Hardy, Ohio, Monongalia and Randolph.

Other 1790 census substitutes are: Heads of Families at the First Census of the United States Taken in the Year 1790: Records of the State Enumerations 1782-1785, Virginia, which includes lists for Greenbrier, Hampshire, Harrison and Monongalia counties; Virginia Tax Payers, 1782-1787, which includes lists for Augusta, Berkeley, Hardy and Montgomery counties; and The Ohio County, West Virginia Personal Property Tax Record for 1785, 1786, 1790, 1791, 1795.

Keep in mind that the western Virginia counties of 1790 covered more area than their present-day counterparts. The 1790 Greenbrier County, for example, contained all of present-day Greenbrier and parts of Fayette, Monroe, Nicholas, Pocahontas, Summers and Webster counties. The 1790 Ohio County contained all of present-day Brooke, Hancock, Marshall, Ohio, Tyler and Wetzel counties as well as part of Doddridge and Pleasants counties. Map Guide to the U.S. Federal Censuses 1790-1920 illustrates county boundaries at the time of each Federal Census as they compare to present-day boundaries.

Steven A. Bridges has attempted to reconstruct the 1800 census for the 13 Virginia counties that were later to become West Virginia by using the counties' 1799, 1800 or 1801 Personal Property Tax lists and the 1799 Land Tax list for Ohio County. Bridges' compilation is called Virginians in 1800: Counties of West Virginia.

The 1800 tax lists for Berkeley, Brooke, Greenbrier, Hampshire, Hardy and Harrison counties also have been published in The Virginia Genealogist, while the 1800 tax list for Jefferson County has been published in the Magazine of the Jefferson County Historical Society.

YFNB Vol 1 #1 (Anita Eyster article 'Junghen Family of Bucks County):
There is a baptiss for his son George in 1766

Joseph THOMAS: per DAR his wife is Catharine KILLICHER; married 23 Jan 1759 in Blue Mountain Church, now Zion, in Strausstown, PA.; Estate 29-1832---this doesn't add up - the John who married Killicher is probably the other son, John, who was by a previous marriage in either Bucks Co. or in Germany - ????

Mrs. Christina Dumbauld Schrock.

Mrs. Christina Dumbauld Schrock of Upper Turkeyfoot Township died at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Charles N. Flanigan, at Confluence, at 1:30 P. M., Friday, May 13. She had been an invalid for some time and used a wheeled chair to get around. She was taken to Confluence to visit her daughter on Sunday, May 11, and a few days later was stricken by paralysis and was unconscious until her death.

Mrs. Schrock was 80 years of age, having been born in Upper Turkeyfoot Township in 1844. She was a daughter of the late Jonathan Dumbauld. She married Perry Schrock who died 13 years ago. They reared a large family of children, of whom ten survive, namely: G. N. Schrock and Mrs. G. B. Dull, of Somerset; Dr. Edward Schrock, Wisconsin; Mrs. C. N. Flanigan, Confluence; Mrs. H. E. Wilhelm, Kingwood, W. Va.; Mrs. M. E. Sechler, Milford Township; Albert A. Schrock, Pittsburgh, and H. B. Schrock, Jefferson Township, this county. She is also survived by two brothers, J. B. Dumbauld of Colorado, and Peter Dumbauld of Somerset Township, and also by a number of grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

She was a faithful member of the Church of God. Brief funeral services were held at the Flanigan home at 1:30 on Sunday afternoon, Rev. L. H. Powell of the Confluence M. E. Church officiating. The remains were taken from Confluence to the Church of God at Kingwood where funeral services were conducted by Rev. Slomp. Interment in Kingwood cemetery.

PERRY SCHROCK

Perry Schrock, aged 65, one of the best known residents of Milford township, died at two o'clock Sunday afternoon, from the effects of a stroke of paralysis sustained some weeks ago. Mr. Schrock was a native of Upper Turkeyfoot township, removing with his parents to Milford township thirty two years ago.

Perry Schrock was a son of the late Andrew and Susan (Younkin) Schrock. He was married to Christina Dumbauld, a daughter of the late Jonathan Dumbauld, of Milford township. Besides his widow, he is survived by the following children: G. Newton Schrock, of Somerset; John H. Schrock, of Raiphton; Susan, wife of Charles Flanigan, of Confluence; Albert A. Schrock, of Pittsburgh; Cora, wife of Charles O. Sechler, of Milford township; Elizabeth, wife of George H. Dull, of Milford township; Charles E. Schrock, of Somerset; Harry B. Schrock, of Jefferson township; Jennie, wife of Harry E. Wilhelm, of Clearfield, Pa., and Dr. Edward Schrock, of St. Louis, Mo. He is survived by one brother, Ephraim Schrock, of Kingwood.

Funeral services were conducted at Kingwood Tuesday afternoon at two o'clock, by the Rev. W. J. Umstead, a Church of God minister. Interment in the Kingwood cemetery.

Died Dec. 17, 1911

Tannehill Historical Sketch . . .

By Zachariah L. Tannehill

There were five brothers, Zachariah, James, Adamson, Josiah and Samuel.

(1) Samuel settled in what is now western Virginia on the pike leading from Brandonville to Kingwood, raised a family; died and buried on the farm that he lived on. Josiah settled in Washington County, Pa. Zachariah settled in Kentucky and was a general in the War of 1812. Adamson settled in Pittsburgh and was one of the Directors of the first State Bank established in Pittsburgh. James settled in the eastern part of Franklin County, Pa.

(2) James, William and Samuel, Jr. sons of Samuel Tannehill, Sr. of West Virginia, settled in the Turkeyfoot settlement about the year 1787. James and William bought the farm now owned by Robert McNeils (heirs), Adam Nicholson, David Hyatt and Elmer King, of one Abraham Booserberk for two gallons of rum and one pair of buckskin breeches.

James Tannehill was a owner of slaves, he also kept a store and tavern. I have heard it said that there would be as many as fifty or seventy-five wagons in the yard over night. Persons going West. James Tannehill was a soldier in the War of 1812, he was in the cavalry service and when discharged brought his horse named "Appolo" home with him, and when it died at the age of 22 years, had him buried on the farm near the state road where his grave can yet be seen.

William Tannehill enlisted as a soldier in the War of 1812 but did not leave Somerset as the Company was not taken into active service. William Tannehill kept a store near Paddytown on the farm now owned by William Eicher, he also held the office of constable for many years; he was an auctioneer.

Nehemiah Tannehill settled near Petersburg and lived there until 1806 when he moved into Ohio, and in 1809 was kicked by a horse and killed. Samuel Tannehill settled in Draketown, north and east of the Draketown Run, now owned by William Burkholder, Daniels and wife, Mat Christy, Silas Conn, Alexander Nicolo and John P. Thomas and wife. He married Rachael Moon, daughter of James Moon, and moved to Ohio.

James Tannehill (married Jemima Smith) was the father of seven children, Robert, Moses, James, Rebecca, Mary, Sarah and Matilda. Rebecca married John A. Mitchell of Addison Township, the father of David and Alfred Mitchell, men of prominence in Addison Township. Mary was married to Dr. Cook of Cookstown, Fayette County, Pa. Matilda married (Elijah) Sargent, (of Somerset) and settled near Ligonier in Westmoreland County, Pa. Robert was hurt in an altercation with Jacob Rush from the affects of which he died at Draketown and is buried by the side of his mother at the Jersey Church.

James went down in the neighborhood of McKeesport. William Tannehill married Delilah Hyatt, daughter of Charles Hyatt who lived at the time on part of the farm now owned by W. H. Koontz in Lower Turkeyfoot Township. They had four children, Nancy, Zachariah, Josiah and William. Nancy married Charles Hyatt, son of John Hyatt, who had seven children, William, Charles, Hiram, Josiah, Marion, Delilah and Neomiah Hyatt.

Zachariah Tannehill married Mary A. Lanning, daughter of Joseph and Sarah Lanning who moved into the Turkeyfoot region from New Jersey in the year 1802. Lanning was bitten by a rattlesnake in 1807 and died from the effects of the same in 1809 and is buried at the Jersey Church. Zachariah and Mary A. Tannehill had eleven children, Delilah, Eli, Joseph, William, Sally, Victor, Charles, Zachariah L., Mary Ann, Matilda and Nancy Tannehill.

Eli Tannehill married Eliza J. Graham, daughter of John Graham and had nine children, Margaret, W. H. of Junction City, Kansas, Winfield, Norman Bruce now in the ministry, S. J. of Scottsdale, Rebecca, Caroline, Mary A. and Matilda Tannehill.

Joseph Tannehill married Rachel Rower, daughter of Jesse Rower, had ten children—Henry, Robert, Mahala, Mary A., Jeremiah, Thomas, Sarah, Kate, Ellen, Louretta.

Victor Tannehill married Mary West of Sandy Creek, Virginia, daughter of Nathaniel West who lives now in Highland County, Ohio. Had children, William, Nathaniel, Enos, Zachariah, Melvina, Mary A., and Matilda Tannehill.

Sally Tannehill married Jacob H. Younkin, had eight children, A. J., Messmore, Filmore, John, Eli, Sadie, Arthils, McClelland Younkin.

Mary Ann Tannehill married David Mitchell, had four children, Alice, John, Emma and Mansfield Mitchell. Zach-ariah L. Tannehill married Susan Heinbaugh, daughter of George Heinbaugh of Addison, had six children—Alison, Howard, Cora B., Norman B., George W. and James W. Tannehill.

Matilda Tannehill married A. J. Case, now proprietor of the Baltimore House in Connellsville, have three children, Rolla, Lizzie and George Case.

Nancy Tannehill married Henry Whipkey and had 12 children, Delilah, Eveline, John, A. Jackson, William, James, Harrison, Judson, Victor, Garfield, Matilda and Iva.

Josiah Tannehill married Frances Mountain, daughter of Joseph Mountain and had 10 children, Sarah, Ann, Alpheus, Alonza, Hannah, Delilah, William, Elizabeth, Manoh, Jasper N. and Catherine Tannehill.

Alpheus Tannehill married Mary A. Sanner, daughter of M. A. Sanner of Turkeyfoot, moved west, had children, the writer can't give names.

Sarah Ann Tannehill married Adam Lingenfield, children—Josiah, Edward, Shepherd, Elizabeth Lingenfield.

Manoh Tannehill married Kate Clark of West Virginia, two children, Ralph and Grace Tannehill.

Jasper N. Tannehill married Mary A. Burkholder, daughter of Daniel and Catherine Burkholder of Lower Turkeyfoot Township, had four children, Sherman N., William, Etta and Robert. Catherine Ann Tannehill has children, can't give names.

William Tannehill (of William) married Nancy M. Miller, daughter of Squire John M. Miller of Turkeyfoot, had eight children, four boys, four girls: Nancy Tannehill, now Hanlin, of Paris, Michigan; Mary Ann, now Shough, Farwell, Indiana; Delilah Ashborn, Buckeye City, Ohio; Sarah Ann Harold, New Hampshire, Ohio; J. J. Tannehill, Fulton, Ohio; William Tannehill, Columbia City, Indiana; Alfred Tannehill, Warren, Dakota; Eli M. Tannehill, New Carlisle, Ohio.

William Tannehill, son of Eli M. Tannehill, served three years and four months in the Union Army.

Josiah Tannehill, son of Alpheus, enlisted in the Army in 1862 and served until he contracted fever in a raid after the Indians up Red River in Arkansas in the Fall of 1864, from the effects of which he died at Jefferson Barracks, St. Louis, Mo., January 10, 1865.

Zachariah Tannehill had three sons in the army, Joseph, Eli and Zachariah L.

Burkholder Family Background

The Burkholder Family History by Will Judy, John Lohr and Eber Cockley.

The Burkholder family background is extensive; the earliest records are found in Switzerland, thence to the Palatinate where Bishop Hans Burkholder was clan chief. Early family groups in America settled in what is now Lancaster County, where we find a Hans Burkholder listed in the Conestoga Rate (tax list) in 1716. They were mostly Mennonites. The annual descendant reunions are usually held in eastern Pennsylvania.

There were numerous Burkholders in southern Somerset County early in its history. Abraham Burkholder II was a son of one who must have been among the first settlers to cross the Alleghenies into the tableland between the Allegheny and Negro mountains. He willed a 140-acre tract which he said he had gotten from his father.

ABRAHAM II had 7 sons and 3 daughters, whose mother was Elizabeth

The will names the children, likely in order of birth: Daniel, Moses (great-grandfather to John Lohr), Levi, Noah, John, Elizabeth, Emanuel, William (grandfather to Will Judy), Catherine and Susan.

FUND FOR FRENCH SCHOOL

Local Students Contribute Towards Educational Gift.

The Connellsville high school students have contributed $20 toward the construction of two high schools in France for the education of the children of that country. The money, donated at the request of the committee for the rehabilitation of France, was sent to State Superintendent of Public Instruction Thomas E. Pluegen. The money, from all over the nation, will be collected together at once and presented by March 15th before the return to France.

One of the new buildings will be called the Washington La Fayette high school and the other the Pershing-Park.

Subjective for The Weekly Courier

When the constable threatened to endeavour to seize the machine, Williams gave himself up. The constable on the machine had been defaced with black paint. In Uniontown Williams told the officers he and his wife argued because the woman had been too friendly with Lipcomb.

Lipcomb was also arrested by the city officers and an investigation made at Rome. The locations of two attils were discovered and a further search revealed the apparatus had been hidden in a back yard. It was confiscated and will be held as evidence.

SUICIDE BY CARBOLIC ACID

May 14 -- Connellsville, Pa. Albert Younkin, a young man, employed as a polisher at the Crescent Glass Plant was found near death in a vacant lot on Gibson Avenue early yesterday morning: while nearby was an empty bottle that had contained carbolic acid. He was taken across the street to the home of Grant Shumaker, where he boarded and died an hour later. There was nothing to show the cause of the young man's rash act except a lock of golden hair carefully laid away in a side pocket. He had been very attentive to a young lady at Gibson but it seems he found that her affection for him had died. It is thought that unrequited love led him to end his life.

The deceased was 26 years of age and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Messmore Younkin.

SUMMONS OF DEATH

Came to John A. Mestrezat as He Walked on Busy Pittsburg Street.

ADDI EY WAS THE MALADY.

That Struck Him Down So Suddenly.
— Conductor Peter B. Rhodes Called to the Great Terminal—Mrs. Moncison's Death.

Death came very suddenly to John A. Mestrestat, a well known citizen of town, Monday morning at 8 o'clock. Going on an errand to the North Side, he was just passing Morris & Co.'s undertaking establishment when he dropped some packages he was carrying and pitched forward on his face. He was carried into the store, and in a few minutes breathed his last. Apoplexy is thought to have been the cause of his sudden death. The remains were taken to the home of his son-in-law, Dr. H. F. Atkinson, where he has made his home for the past three years.

John A. Mestrezal was born in Mestropolis, Greene county, September 23, 1858. He was the son of Frederick and Adella Mestrezal. He spent the early portion of his life in Greene county, being married to Miss Katharine Nell of Green shore. Thirty-one years ago he came to Connelleville, which has since been his home. His occupation is carpenter by trade, and a master workman. Of his seven children four are living. These are Frederick of Texas, Mrs. J. I. Humbert of Selig, Jefferson county, Pa.; Mrs. H. F. Atkinson and John Raymond Mestrezal, both of Connelleville. His wife died three years ago.

Deceased also leaves three sisters, Mrs. C. M. Craig of Mannington, W. Va., Mrs. Mary Mercer of Greensboro and Mrs. William Shaffer of Allegheny City. Justice S. Leslie Mestreat and Squire Charles Mestreat, the latter of Mapleton, are first cousins of the deceased. He was a member of the First place on Wednesday. Services by her pastor, Rev. J. S. Jewell of the Flatwoods Baptist Church, Interment in Flatwoods cemetery.

Leona Haddock, the little two-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Haddock, died at the home of her parents, on Main street, New Haven, Tuesday, May 12, after a short illness. The funeral was held Wednesday at 10 o'clock, in conjunction with that of Mrs. Mary Morrison, who died a few days ago in Chicago. The remains of both were interred in Hill Grove Cemetery after services had been conducted by Rev. W. A. Edie.

Mrs. Allen Krepps.
Mrs. Allen M. Krepps died at her home on the North Side Tuesday evening at 5 o'clock, aged 63 years. Twenty-four hours before her death she was stricken down with apoplexy, and never rallied from the shock of the sudden attack. She leaves besides her husband, a son and daughter, A. Milton Krepps, and Mrs. John Rogers, both of town.

John B. Yard.
 Peterson, May 9.—John S. Yard, a veteran resident of this place, died at the home of his son-in-law, Harry Shaw, here this morning at 5:20 o'clock of pneumonia. He had been ill for a number of weeks. He was the father of W. S. Yard, a notary public of Connellsville.

Albert Young In Commits Suicide at Night in Open Field.

I GET A NOTE EXPLAINING WHY.

He Was Tired of Life and Had Decided to End It All—Young Man and Wife Known at South Connellsville—Suffered Torture for Hours.

Albert Yumkin, a young man of South Connelleyville, took carbofic acid some time during Tuesday and died shortly after he was found at 6 o'clock Wednesday. Yumkin took the poison under a tree between May's house on South Pittsburg street and the Crescent Manufacturing Company's plant, where he has been employed. Lewis May and Robert Reash found him lying unconscious Wednesday. A note he had written last night was scribbled on a sheet of paper. It said that a wretched life was about to give up, and the writer expected to die in bed.

Yumkin was about 25 years old and was single. He boarded with Grant Shumaker on Gilbert avenue, South Connelleyville. He was a son of Mr. and Mrs. Moore Yumkin. He leaves a number of brothers and sisters.

George F. Soisson, 75, of 1813 Second St., South Connellsville, died Sunday, Aug. 28, 1988, in Frick Community Health Center, Mt. Pleasant. He was born Oct. 16, 1912, in South Connellsville, a son of the late William and Myrtle Younkin Soisson.

He was a resident of South Connellsville for most of his life. Before retirement, he was employed as a foreman by Anchor Hocking Corp., with 40 years of employment. He was a member of the South Connellsville Goldenaires, the American Association of Retired Persons, and Trinity Evangelical Lutheran Church, Connellsville.

He was preceded in death by four brothers, Paul, Fred, James, and William Soisson; and a sister, Helen Cross.

He is survived by his wife, Katherine Gerke Soisson; two sons, William G. of Connellsville and Larry Soisson of Seymour, Conn.; two daughters, Mrs. Theodore (Kathleen) Cocks of Newport, N.C., and Mrs. John (Nancy) Dye of Connellsville; three sisters, Loretta McClintock and Rose Corvin, both of South Connellsville, and Mrs. Earl (Ruth) Beatty of Winchester, Ind.; and 10 grandchildren.

Services will be held Wednesday, Aug. 31, 1988, in Connellsville.

Mrs. A. D. Soisson Chosen President Of Missionary Society

Jan. 4—At its first meeting of the new year Thursday afternoon, the Woman's Missionary Society of the First Christian Church elected Mrs. A. D. Soisson president and Mrs. M. R. Younklin, vice-president. Other officers will continue to serve. The meeting was held at the church parlor and was unusually well attended, despite the inclement weather.

Mrs. M. R. Younklin conducted the devotionals and Mrs. J. Frank Rust had charge of the program, the subject being "The World Need for ease." Rev. Merrill L. Cadwell, church pastor, was guest speaker. He gave a fine talk on "Missions." Mrs. J. D. Mortimer presented a splendid paper on "I Cannot Go to Far Off Land" and Mrs. Soisson, who presided, closed the meeting with a prayer of faith.

The society will have charge of the brotherhood dinner Wednesday evening, January 17, at the social room of the church. Mrs. Soisson appointed Mrs. W. H. Berger, Mrs. Earl C. Gibbons and Mrs. Jesse Barnes a committee in charge. The dinner is for all members of the church.

Hostesses, Mrs. G. B. Kriss and Mrs. George Freeman, served a tasty lunch.

last Paradise st. has been opening the same door when he came to work at the corner drug store.

Friday, for the last time, Fred entered through that door to the old drug store for the day.

The door, corner entrance to the block since the building was erected about 1870, was ready to be removed by Contractor Clarence King. The last remnant of the old Swan block was making way for new building.

SINCE 1910 WHEN he came to Orrville and bought half interest in the drug store with Tom Rice, Fred Knowlton has been using the door most of the time. He has gone through the portal numberless times.

"I wouldn't even try to guess how many times. I have unlocked that door," Fred said. "I wouldn't even now how to start figuring how many times I have unlocked that door," Fred said. "I wouldn't even now how to start figuring how many times I've gone through it on my way in and out," he added.

Fred came to Orrville from Newark, in 1910, and purchased a half interest in the drug store from Rice. They were partners three years.

"You almost caught me on my anniversary," Knowlton said. "I came here Sept. 10, 1910, and have been working in here most of the time since."

In 1913 the partners sold to Carl Lechtel, and later Karl Kraft, well known businessman and insurance representative here, purchased the store. Fred Knowlton got back into the drug business by purchasing the store from Kraft in 1922.

For 17 years until 1939, Fred Knowlton owned the store. Then he sold the store to William Leibforth.

"For a couple of years I loafed," Fred said. "I thought that it was about time to retire, but I could not sit around doing nothing."

Coming back to the old stand, Fred took up where he left to "retire." Since then he has been a familiar figure in the drug store which was purchased by Frank Seifried over three years ago.

Modern times, new faces, and finally, new construction caught up with the old building which Fred Knowlton used for more than a third of a century, is supplanted by a newer, more modern counterpart.

Sees Majority Basically Good

CLEVELAND — Frank J. Lausche, Democratic candidate for governor, believes that "if all people go to the polls, eventually the nation will profit because the majority is basically good."

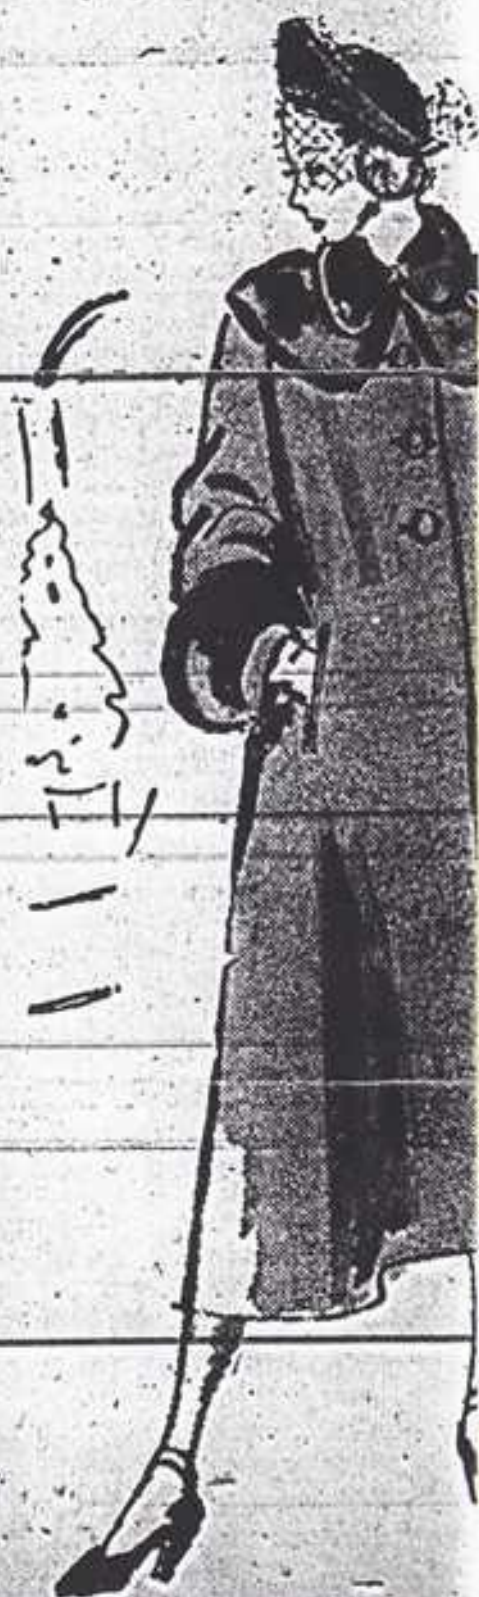

The ex-governor lashed out at the American public yesterday at a picnic gathering in Cleveland and assailed its lethargy when it comes to exercising the right to vote.

"It might be that we will lose the election," Lausche said, "but eventually the nation will profit."

"We become too satisfied. We feel the right to vote is one privilege we'll never lose — and we do

Louis M. Younkin

YOUTH IS INJURED
IN AUTO ACCIDENT

HAGERSTOWN, MD., Apr. 8. 1941—Louis M. Younkin, Jr., three-year old son of Louis M. Younkin, Sr., Concord street, Hagerstown, was injured, but not seriously yesterday afternoon when a rear door of Younkin's car came open and the child who was riding alone in the back seat, fell out on the highway.

The accident occurred on U. S. Route 40 just west of Cumberland, and the boy's father picked him up, took a small stone out of his head and took him to the State Police Barracks nearby.

A Cumberland physician was called and treated the child. Sgt. Charles M. Magaha of the State Police said the boy's body was a mass of cuts and bruises, but the physician said he was not badly hurt. Younkin took his son on to Hagerstown later.

PNEUMONIA IS FATAL TO WIFE OF LOCAL MERCHANT

Mrs. W. F. Mitchell, Who Died
Sunday, Was Descended From
The Earliest American Stock.

Mrs. W. F. Mitchell, 70-year-old wife of the well-known local grocer, died Sunday afternoon, December 19, at the family residence here, a victim of terminal pneumonia.

Funeral services took place at the Methodist Episcopal church at two o'clock Tuesday afternoon. Burial was in Mountial Park cemetery, Topeka.

The pallbearers were Clarence Youcum, Nels Hammuthund, David Urbansky and Frank Allen of St. Marys; C. P. Aul of Lawrence and Sam Shannon of Manhattan. The Rev. Fred Johnson officiated.

Sadie Younklin Mitchell was a daughter of the American Revolution in fact, not fancy. Born in South Connellyville, Pennsylvania on October 25, 1867, she was a direct descendant of the Drakes and the Tannehills of Revolutionary war renown.

With her husband and family she came to Kansas in 1891 to occupy a farm northwest of Topeka. It was in 1914 that "Dad" Mitchell decided to open a grocery store in St. Marys, better known in those days as the Union Tea store.

Three years ago last Thanksgiving day, Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell celebrated the golden jubilee anniversary of their marriage.

Mrs. Mitchell was loved by all who knew her intimately. In recent years, particularly, was she an inspiring figure to her friends. Illness was a cross she had to bear for five or six years, but nobody ever heard a protest from Sadie Mitchell. She accepted her lot with dignity and courage, and the example she set will not soon be forgotten.

Mrs. Mitchell is survived by her husband and six children, thirteen grandchildren and one great grandchild. The children are George Mitchell of Kansas City; Roy of Detroit; Noly of Auburn; Earl of St. Mary; Mrs. Grace Bean of Auburn and Mrs. Eva Bean of Topeka.

MILTON ANDREWS.

Milton Andrews died in a hospital near Blairsville on Thursday evening, April 14th, at 6 P. M., after a short illness from pneumonia. He was born in Upper Turkeyfoot Township, March 10, 1873, a son of the late Marcellus and Ruena Andrews. He was aged 59 years, 1 month and 4 days. He spent most of his younger days in the vicinity of Ursina. He received his education at the Soldiers' Orphans Home, Jumbonville, and lived in the Connellsville region many years.

His body was brought from Blairsville last Saturday to the home of his sister, Mrs. Nora Hoyt, in Ursina.

Surviving are four brothers, Harry Andrews, address unknown; Garfield W. Andrews and Earl Andrews, Chicago, Ill., and Lee Andrews, Pittsburgh. Four sisters also survive—Mrs. Mabel Ankney, Murdoch; Mrs. Nora Hoyt, Ursina; Mrs. Susan Reid, Chicago, and Mrs. Minnie Murphy, Uniontown. Two brothers, Albert and Charles B. Andrews, preceded him to the grave.

Funeral services were held at the home of Mrs. Nora Hoyt on Monday at 10 A. M., Rev. W. L. Morgan, minister of the Confluence Methodist Episcopal Church, officiating. Interment in the Ursina Cemetery.

SARAH THOMAS RUSH ^{P.344}

I am a native of Pennsylvania, born 7 miles from Ohiopyle in 1893 — August 1. I married William Harrison Rush in 1914. My husband was a son of Harrison H. Rush, his father was Jehu Rush, a settler from New Jersey. I had a great-grandfather who came from Tennessee. My husband and I had 10 children, 6 boys and 4 girls, of which 7 are living. I still live on the old Jehu Rush farm, and have lived here 65 years this December 1979. We were farmers. My father was also a farmer. His name was Samuel Thomas. I had 2 brothers and my mother — Louise Jane — was a daughter of Charles Rose, an old Civil War veteran. My grandfather Thomas was also a Civil War veteran — Henry Thomas. By Sarah J. Rush

RAY AND VELMA RUSH

Ray Rush and Velma Livengood were married March 18, 1931. Ray was born February 2, 1912 to Lee Rush (of Francis Rush and Martha Ream) and Minnie Romesburg (of John Romesburg and Lucenda). Velma was born September 6, 1914 to Lewis Livengood (of Mahlow Livengood and Lavina Enos) and Myrtle Schweitzer (of Gotlieb Schweitzer and Susanna Hersch).

Ray worked for General Refractories at Fort Hill, Pa. from 1937 until he retired as superintendent in 1976. Mules were used to bring the fireclay out of the deep mines until 1957, when more strip mining began.

In January 1942, Ray and Velma bought his home farm which his father Lee, built in 1914. They did some farming and raised their four children there; Lois, (married to Fred Darr, Jr.); Faye, (married to Royal Knepper Jr.); Guy, (married to Barbara Mincik); and Nancy, (married to Jerry Brocht.) Then in 1964, they moved to their present home in Kingwood.

Their hobbies include hunting, especially deer, fishing gardening, and sewing. Velma has made well over 100 quilts complete, most of which go to their children and grandchildren. Ray spends a good portion of his retirement helping his children with their building and mechanical projects. These many activities help keep them both in very good health and very busy with home and church work at Fort Hill Church of God. By Lois Darr

Mrs. Lucinda Younklin.

Mrs. Lucinda Sweetzer Younklin, died at her home in Ursina, on Dec. 24, 1910, at the age of 84 years. She had been in declining health for a year or so, and her death was due to the natural infirmities of old age. The funeral was conducted from the home on Monday, by her pastor, Rev. L. P. Glass, assisted by Rev. G. W. Hinger. The remains were interred at the Jersey cemetery.

She was the widow of a veteran and the pall-bearers were old soldiers. Mrs. Younklin, the youngest child in the family of twelve (all of whom she survived), was a daughter of the late Peter and Margaret Friedline Sweetzer, and was born near Levanville, in 1827. After the death of her parents she removed to Lower Turkeyfoot township, with her sister, Mrs. John Minder, with whom she made her home until her marriage four years later in 1847, to John H. Younklin. After the death of her husband, Nov. 1, 1890, she continued to make her home in Ursina, where she was known and loved by all for her real worth. She was a dutiful wife and an affectionate mother and a true friend. Years ago she united with the Turkeyfoot Baptist Church and while her life was unostentatious it was crowned with Christian virtues. She was in her 84th year at the time of her death. Her death was peaceful and serene like one that wraps the drapery of his couch about him and lies down to pleasant dreams.

Besides a host of relatives and friends, she is survived by seven children as follows: W. Scott Younklin, Brandonville, W. Va.; Mrs. J. C. Forsythe, Connellsville; Mrs. E. C. STRANGER RELIEVES ADDISON TOWNSHIP MAN OF $20.00.

The generosity of Mr. Hank Sue of Strawn, caused him to be "touched" by a stranger on Tuesday night of this week at his home.

It was about supper time when the stranger appeared at the Sue home and asked if he could be given a meal and lodging for the night. Mr. Sue took the stranger into his house and complied with his request but at some time during the early morning hours, Mr. Stranger arose from his peaceful slumbers and proceeded to extricate all the coin he could find from the clothing of Mr. Sue. He was fortunate in this, for he secured about $20.00. Mr. Sue discovered his loss early and in company with Amos Kurts took the trail of the robber. At last he was captured not far from where the robbery was committed, the money was returned to the rightful owner and on promise to leave the country at once the robber was allowed to go.

Institute a Success.

The Annual Teachers' Institute of Fayette County, held in Uniontown last week was the most successful in its history. Noted instructors and lecturers from the most prominent institutions in the country delivered addresses to the pedagogues, much to the benefit of all.

Master Harry Lydig is recovering from a severe attack of la-grippe.

The News has been a little late this week in making it's appearance, but this has not been our fault. We lost a day last Monday, the job presses have been very busy so that we were unable to put extra-help on the newspaper and the large amount of local reading matter all tended to delay us but we feel that you will have been fully repaid for your waiting when you have read this issue. We think it is our best issue yet.

John Camp.

John Camp, aged 86 years, 11 months and 8 days, died Saturday night at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. L. Guthrie, Connellsville, after a brief illness. The infirmities of old age was the cause of his death. Mr Camp was a widower and had resided with Mrs. Guthrie for the past six months. He is survived by a family of grown children.

A short service was held last Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock from the Guthrie residence. The body was shipped to Addison Tuesday morning by Funeral Director, J. E. Sims and was removed to the home of Mrs. Frank Shirer, a daughter of the deceased. Funeral services were held Wednesday morning at the Lutheran Church, Cove, Md.,

WHEATLESS BREAD

Carragee Library Offers Recipe That Will Solve Tomorrow's Problem.
The Carragee Free Library has on file all kinds of recipes which will help you save wheat, sugar and meat. These recipes are by government experts and are recommended by the National Food Administration.
Wednesday is a wheatless day. Here is a recipe that will solve bread problems tomorrow:

Soft Corn Bread (Serves 6)

1/2 cup rice
1/2 cup white corn meal
2 cups milk or milk and water mixed
2 or 3 eggs
1 tablespoon of butter
1 teaspoon of salt
Mix the meal, rice and salt with the milk in a double boiler and cook until the rice is nearly soft. Add the butter and eggs well beaten and put the mixture in a greased granite baking pan. Bake for an hour in a moderate oven and serve in the pan in which it is baked.

Ask at the library for recipes and watch the bulletin board for new ideas.

RIVER FREEZES OVER

For Second Time This Year Yough Is Covered Between Bridges.

The Yough river was frozen over again Sunday night for the second time this year, the space between the two bridges being covered with a sheet of ice this morning. It began to thaw about 9 o'clock. It is unusual for the river to freeze over at points below the power house, but the wind, blowing up the river checks the swift current and cools the water to a freezing temperature.

The thermometer fell to six above zero last night according to the official thermometer. Thermometers in other parts of the city registered anywhere from zero to six above. After the thaw which set in Saturday night the slush again froze up and made walking difficult. The thaw again set in yesterday morning and a light rain fell but later in the day this turned to snow and for a short time last night a storm raged.

graduated from the Millersville State Normal School. William H. Weller, his brother, served in the war and died of a wound. (See military.)

Daniel Sechler was born in Berks county about 1774. He came to Milford township and settled prior to 1809. He was a farmer and carpenter. He died in 1849. He married Mary Enos, and his children were Jonathan, Henry, Andrew, Joseph, Elizabeth, Mary (Sterner), Magdalena (Ringer), Susan (Griffith), Catharine (Miller) and Sarah. Only Andrew and Sarah are living. Andrew Sechler was born in Milford in 1809, and has resided here during his long life, witnessing many and great transformations in the country about him. In 1846 he purchased of John Vought the farm on which he now lives. Mr. Sechler married Sarah Enos. His children—William, John, Andrew, Sarah (Yutzy) and Laura—are all dead but Sarah.

John Sterner, who was a soldier in the war of 1812, moved to Milford about 1820. He was born in Elk Lick in 1785. He died in 1867. His wife was Mary Sechler. Children: Jacob, Alexander, Emanuel, Hannah (Wiltout) and Elizabeth (Ohler). Alexander Sterner was born and reared on his father's farm. In 1848 he bought of David Weimer two hundred acres of land near Rockwood, where he is still engaged in farming.

Jacob D. Snyder, a native of this state, was born in 1799, and settled in Milford township in 1821. He died in 1865. The names of his children are Daniel, Dewalt, Levi, Peter, Lydia and Susan. The sons are among the prominent and enterprising farmers of Milford.

Valentine Hay, an early settler of Brother's Valley, was probably a native of Germany. He died in 1832, aged fifty-four. His children were Jacob, Jonathan, Elizabeth (Miller), Susan, Catharine (Knepper), Mary (Hauger), Sarah (Suder) and Tina (Brubaker). Still living: Jacob, Catharine, Sarah and Tina. Jonathan settled in Milford township about 1848, and bought a farm of Peter Hauger, which he cultivated until his death in 1881. The farm is now occupied by John J. Hay, his son. In 1883, John J. Hay and his brother William began operating a steam sawmill on the farm.

Jacob Sweitzer, a native of Germany, settled near Stoystown at an early date. His son Peter, born in this county in 1775, was a farmer, and died in 1831. He married Margaret Friedline, and was the father of ten children: John (living); Peter, Sally (Minder), Lydia (McQuillan), Susan (Lemon), Polly (Henry), Barbara (McIntire), Margaret (Young), deceased; Harriet (Rice) and Hettie (Younkin). John Sweitzer in 1842 purchased from Peter Shultz the farm on which he now resides.

The Enfields were early settlers of Addison township. Freeman Enfield, son of John, who now lives in Middle Creek township, came from the latter township to Milford in 1867. In 1869 he purchased of Tobias Meyers a valuable farm of one hundred and thirty acres for five thousand nine hundred and seventy-five dollars, which he has since greatly improved. Mr. Enfield served in the late war as corporal in Co. D, 54th regt. Penn. Vols. from December, 1861, until January, 1865.

George Dumbauld, a prominent farmer, is engaged largely in stock-raising and dairying. He purchased his present farm of Jacob Walker in 1882. The farm contains three hundred and forty acres, and is in a high state of cultivation. No farming community in this part of the state surpasses Milford township in fine farms, good buildings and progressive farmers.

David, son of Caspar Hoover, was an early resident of Brother's Valley. His son, Samuel D., born in Brother's Valley in 1823, settled in Milford in 1845, and followed farming. He died in 1872. His son, Edward Hoover, is at present engaged in the United States internal revenue service in the 16th district of Pennsylvania.

Jacob Miller, who was born in this county about 1779, kept store in Berlin for many years. He died in 1864. His children were: Josiah, living; Hiram, Aaron, Jacob and Rosana (Conrad), deceased; Caroline (Ferner), Louisa (Krisinger) and Rebecca (Dunner), living. Josiah settled at Centreville about 1843. His son, Aaron J., is a prominent farmer of this township, residing on a farm which he purchased of his father in 1870. A. J. Miller served in the late war during two terms of enlistment. See military chapters.

Philip Wolfersberger was born in Lebanon county in 1802. He settled in Milford township in 1836. In 1857 he laid out the village of Rockwood. Mr. Wolfersberger has followed farming and the mercantile business. He is now living among his children. His eldest son, David H., who was born in Dauphin county, settled in Milford in 1836. He is now keeping

Memorial Day Appropriately Observed
The Memorial Day services conducted by Harry Lichty Post, No. 394, the American Legion, were a decided success and the systematic manner in which every detail was carried out reflects the highest credit all connected with the celebration. The parade started at 9 A. M. in the following order, with Dr. H. P. Sanner as chief marshal:

Veterans of the World War.
Ursina Community Band and Girls' Bugle Corps.
Ladies' Auxiliary.
Odd Fellows.

Confluence Fire Department.
Mount Valley Drum Corps of the Knights of Pythias.
Sunday Schools.

Members of the Grand Army of the Republic, Adam Nickolson and M. J. ... rode in cars and received honorary honor from the younger veterans and citizens in general.

After marching through the principal streets, on the return march from the Confluence short but very impressive services were held on the oldman bridge. After these services the march was resumed to the Methodist Church, where the parade ranks and the Memorial services were held. The following program was carried out in the church:

Organ, Processional, "Heroic March"—Miss Kathryn Beggs.
America—By Assembly.
Invocation—Rev. H. W. Jamison.
Address—By Post Commander, C. Shaffer.

Religious Song—"Our Banner"—By Organ.

Poem, "Peace"—Rev. Geo. O. Ritter.
Duet, "Over The Stars"—Messrs. L. J. Constance and Fred ...

Poem, "Memorial Day"—Adjutant ...

Dean made an address very appropriate for Memorial Day. The memorial address was made by Rev. Dr. N. H. Sanner, superintendent of the Blairville District of the Pittsburgh Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Dr. Sanner is a native of the Turkeyfoot region and a son of a veteran. His wife is a daughter of a veteran; her father, the late Isaac Van Sickle, who resided for many years in Ursina, served during a greater part of the Civil War. Dr. Sanner's address was a very fine one. Rev. Geo. O. Ritter delivered the invocation.

Among those present at the services were: A. J. Colborn, Harnedsville, and S. M. James, Confluence, both veterans of the Civil War; C. E. Black and C. A. McMillan, Confluence; Hon. John C. Kendall of Oakland, Md., a brother of Congressman S. A. Kendall; Rev. H. W. Jamison and Rev. Geo. O. Ritter, of Confluence.

Most of the business places and residences in Addison were tastefully decorated. All the business places were closed.

A Chicken Demonstration.

On the evening of Monday, May 27, a number of Confluence people saw for the first time what a progressive farmer can accomplish in the raising of chickens. On that evening at 6:30 a chicken demonstration was held at Valley Farm, the home of Chas. H. Bird in Addison Township, near the Maryland line. C. C. McDowell, Somerset County Farm agent, and H. H. Kaufman, chicken specialist of State College were the speakers. There were about 50 people present. These came from Berlin, Meyersdale, Confluence, Addison, Lintonburg, Somerset, St. Paul and Paddytown.

An Up-to-Date Farmer.

Mr. Bird has about 700 laying hens and 1,200 chicks from four to six weeks old. They found the chickens and equipment in good condition. All these chickens are White Leghorns, and to see them all in motion or feeding is a pretty sight. But it is nothing new to see "Charley," as he is familiarly called, taking a forward place in all branches of agriculture to which he devotes his attention. In the old days when the horse was king and the raising of horses was a profitable branch of agriculture, the very best horses of all ages and sizes, from the wobbling foal of a few days to the massive draft stallion weighing in the neighborhood of a ton, could be found on the Bird farm. The same condition obtained in regard to cattle.

Council Proceedings.

The Confluence Borough Council met in regular session on Monday evening, June 3rd, with President C. M. Bower in the chair and members

CORA M. YOUNKIN.

The remains of Miss Cora M. Younk, a lifelong resident Lower Turkeyfoot Township and Ursina, were brought here for funeral services and interment on Saturday, June 1st.

She was born in Lower Turkeyfoot Township, on a farm, where she spent her younger days. Many years ago she moved to Ursina where she lived until taken sick last September, when she went to the home of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. John C. Forsythe, who reside on a farm in the suburbs of Connellsville, on the Vanderbilt road, where she died on Thursday morning, May 30th. She was a daughter of John H. and Lucinda (Sweetzer) Younk, and a granddaughter of Peter Sweetzer who served in the Revolutionary War. During her long residence in Ursina she was respected by the entire community and her death is mourned by a large circle of friends.

She is survived by two sisters, Mrs. John C. Forsythe of Connellsville and Mrs. Minnie Meyers who resides in the State of Missouri, and one brother, John Younk, who reside in North Dakota.

Funeral services were held at the Forsythe home on Friday evening, Rev. Stevens, pastor of the Connellsville Baptist Church officiating. The remains were brought to Ursina on Saturday morning, the funeral services being held in the Church of God at 1:30 P. M., Rev. Stevens, who accompanied the remains from Connellsville and Rev. Frank L. Stuck of Confluence, officiating. The services were very impressive. A choir rendered a number of fine selections, with Miss Elmer Edwards accompanist. Rev. Stevens read the scripture lesson and offered the prayers. Rev. Stuck preached a fine funeral sermon. The pall-bearers were Jefferson J. Van Sickle, S. R. Aleotti, Gomer W. Edwards, William R. Wills, Austin E. Walters and Harvey Habaugh. Interment in the Jersey cemetery. Undertaker C. E. Mitchell of Connellsville had charge of the funeral arrangements.

Dear Donna,

I received your letter and read it with much anticipation that maybe now, at last, I would find that missing link that would set me on the right path in my search. You did give me hope and when I called you and you mentioned the reunion - maybe this will be the year!

I am sending you some copies of material I have located and research I have done on Andrew Jackson Young and wife Margaret Sweitzer and their children. Also, the Family Group Sheet for Peter Sweitzer and wife Margaret Friedline and their family showing my Margaret as a child.

I am also sending you a copy of the 1850 census sheet showing Jackson Young and Margaret and daughter Lucinda. Also a copy of the Orphans Court petition for guardianship of the persons and estate of Peter Switzer.

As to the correct birthdate - that seems to need further sorting out. I have a FGS for Margaret's sister Lydia (who married David McQuillan and this was sent to me by a researcher for McQuillan families. She lists Peter's birthdate as March 1777.

I hope this information will be of help and thanks so much for your assistance.

Sincerely,

Delores Hilliard

Oldest Fayette Co. Member Sick

CONNELLVILLE, Pa., Dec. 10, 1938.—Mrs. Nancy Younkin Fayette, who celebrated her 87th birthday on Sept. 16, 1938, will be remembered as the oldest member present at Reunion at Kingwood, Pa., Aug. 31 this year. Word has been received that her former good health has not been so good of late. We hope for a speedy recovery of this grand old Younkin to normal health. Wm. J. H.

Mrs. Nancy Forsythe Improves
Mrs. Nancy Y. Forsythe of near Connellsville, Pa., who has been confined to her room for near one year, and who celebrated her 87th birthday on September 16, 1940, is somewhat improved and able to go about.

These old Younkin folks have the "Never Say Die" spirit which should be the spirit of us of the younger set.

Passes Away in Her 89th Year At Her Home

NANCY Y. FORSYTHE

Jan. 21, 1941.—Mrs. Nancy Younkin Forsythe, 89 years old, died at 4 o'clock Tuesday afternoon at her home along the Connellsville-Vandervilt road, of complications.

Mrs. Forsythe was born near Ursa, Somerset county, a daughter of the late John H. and Lucinda Swettzer Younkin. In 1874 she joined the Turkeyfoot Baptist Church but of late years had been a member of the First Baptist Church of Connellsville. On October 7, 1879, she was united in marriage with John C. Forsythe who preceded her in death October 8, 1933. The couple celebrated their golden wedding anniversary October 7, 1929. Mrs. Forsythe had the distinction of being the oldest member of the Mable Sisters Council of the Daughters of America.

Surviving is one daughter, Mrs. Carmie Forsythe Earle at home. She also leaves a grandson, Elmore Browne of New Kensington, two great grandchildren and a sister, Mrs. Minnie Meyers of New Bloomfield, Mo.

The funeral service will be held at the home at 2 o'clock Friday afternoon. Burial will be made in Hill Grove Cemetery. Friends are asked to please omit flowers.

LOCAL NEWS

Mrs. Ronald Earle of Connells-ville, Pa., and Mrs. Elizabeth Hughes of 149 S. Jenney Road, Philadelphia, Pa., visited Thursday, September 5th, in Charleroi, Pa., with Mrs. Luella Shepard.

By Mrs. Ronald Earle

Three years ago two groups started from their separate homes to investigate some old cemeteries in Upper Turkeyfoot Township. They were searching for markers that would reveal the resting place of some long gone ancestors of the Younklin clan.

They were strangers to each other. By accident they found themselves in the same Gods Acre. After due consideration and quick observation each decided the actions of the other group seemed harmless if somewhat erratic.

Lunch hour was drawing near and well filled baskets were opened. The sight of food aroused a fellow feeling. Throwing caution aside they spread their lunch under the shade of a friendly tree and found their interests identical.

This meeting led to the first reunion three weeks later. About five hundred responded to their invitation to the Kingwood Grove. Today our National Reunion and Home coming is known wherever the Younklin family are living. Much credit is due the two groups who visioned this association and with willing helpers have brought about our organization.

In May a group met to organize the families living in the middle west. They had an all-day meeting at a church in Wakefield, Kansas. After attending the regular church services they had a picnic lunch. During the afternoon they organized an auxiliary to the group who meet here.

The first of the name C. P. T. in this country in 1737. At present there are many missing links in the family chain. Time and distance have dimmed the memory. It is our duty to supply any information we have to help compile this genealogy. No information is to be considered in consequential. Each link is necessary to complete the chain you and you and you are the ones to do this work. Do Your Bit!

JOHN YOUNKIN

Long Beach, Cal. John Younkin, son of the late John H. and Elizabeth Northington Younkin, died in his home, this city, Nov. 23, 1939, age 79 years. When a young man he started a ranch at Goodland, South Dakota, which he developed into extensive acreage. For many years he spent the winters in Long Beach, where he had interests in real estate. Four years ago he suffered a fractured hip. Since that time he has been afflicted. Cancer developed, causing the fatal illness. He is survived by his widow, three daughters and several grandchildren, also two sisters, Mrs. Minnie Myers, New Bloomfield, Mo., and Mrs. Nancy Forstner, Connelleville, Pa. The funeral was held Nov. 25, with interment in Boneyhill Memorial Park, Long Beach.

THE HENRY KREGER FAMILY

According to available records, Henry Kreger and his wife Elizabeth left Germany because of religious persecution and the strife of war. They lived in Dillsheim but set sail from Brehman, Germany. They settled in the Turkeyfoot area in 1834. Three children sailed with them, one son, who died and was buried at sea, a son Frederick and a daughter Mary. Frederick died in 1913 at the age of 84, and his wife Sarah died in 1892 at the age of 65. Mary married Josiah Gross. The following children were born in Pennsylvania: Jacob married Susan Dumbauld, Christian married Catherine Schrock, Louisa married Thomas Williams, Adaline married Green King, Herman married Elizabeth Sechler.

The struggles and hardships were many in a new and sometimes hostile environment and each generation had its share. Working to survive the winter and get the bare necessities was a constant struggle. The building of a railroad through this area was the beginning of a better life.

In 1865 Henry and Elizabeth bought 164 acres of land from Samuel Hochstetler. This was located in Upper Turkeyfoot Twp. On this land was built a house and barn. Henry never learned to speak the English language well; the grandchildren, because of their many pranks, received many scoldings in German which they couldn't understand. Henry died in 1887 at the age of 87 years, and Elizabeth died in 1884 at the age of 78.

→ Christian Kreger bought the farm in 1873. A new house and barn was built. To Christian and Catherine were born the following children: Sarah married Alexander Faidley and in 1884 bought land near Wakefield, Kansas. Mary married Wesley Younkin, Adaline married Levi Weimer, Ida married Albert Zufall, James married Mary Heckler, Ross married Minta Younkin. A son John died while still young.

Ross and Minta were my parents. I remember my grandmother Catherine always being on my side when I was disciplined. My grandfather died in 1901, and my grandmother in 1919.

My father and Uncle James bought the original farm in 1901 and my father bought my uncle's share in 1923.

My sister, Mildred, married Quentin Dumbauld and had one son Gerald. Quentin was killed in 1955. Now Mildred and I own and live on the farm.

As children we attended a one room school with all eight grades. We graduated from Rockwood High School and California State Teachers College. Both of us were teachers and watched schools grow from one room to well-equipped large schools.

We helped with farm chores. I think of my father plowing with a team of horses trying to get one acre plowed a day. Now they plow three acres in an hour. I think the greatest labor saving came with the tractor and building electric power lines through rural areas.

Mildred's son Gerald married Joyce Romesberg and they have a son Richard. Along with his own farm Gerald farms our land.

Both Mildred and I are now, in 1979, retired and enjoy our leisure time. Submitted by Elizabeth Kreger

MRS. WALLACE HECHLER

Mrs. Amanda Younkin Hechler, wife of Wallace Hechler, died at her home near Kingwood, Pa., on Sunday, June 10, of heart disease, at the age of 70 years, 3 months and 3 days. She was born in Upper Turkeyfoot Township, March 16, 1862, and was a daughter of the late Eli and Mary Rose Younkin.

She spent her life in the community in which she was born. On September 27th, 1885, she was united in marriage with Wallace Hechler, who survives her. She is also survived by the following named children: Hechler, Younkin, Charles and Ross Hechler, of Kingwood; Sadie, wife of Russel Sterner, Rockwood; Mary, wife of James Kreger, Kingwood; Corda, wife of Grover Kislor, of Fort Hill; Maude, wife of Ed Snyder, of Johnstown, Pa. One son, James Franklin, died in infancy. She is also survived by two sisters, Mrs. J. W. Naylor, of Maitland, Mo., and Mrs. Hattie Turney of near Ursina, and by 20 grandchildren, and 4 great grandchildren.

Mrs. Hechler was a member of the Church of God, at Kingwood, for 40 years, and always a faithful attendant at Sabbath School until her long illness set in, which lasted fifteen months. Amid all her suffering she was faithful to God, and was waiting His coming for her, realizing that all had been done for her that medical skill could do. She told her loved ones that she wanted to go home to God.

Mrs. Hechler was a model wife, a kind and loving mother, a friend and neighbor to all who came in contact with her, always willing to help anyone in need or afflicted.

Her body was laid to rest on June 21st, in Kingwood L. O. O. F. Cemetery. The funeral took place at 2 o'clock P. M. in the Kingwood Church of God, conducted by her pastor, Rev. Tamplinger. Mills and Mickey were the funeral directors in charge of the burial arrangements.

arture of Beloved Pastor and Wife
 lev. and Mrs. L. H. Powell left e Wednesday, for Donora, Pa., to ke their home with their sons, lph and Preston Powell. The retirfrom active ministerial work by
 v. Powell is caused by the condition his health, he being unable to leave use unless carried for the last onths.

Rev. Powell came here October 15, 22, to take charge of the Confluence rge of the Methodist Episcopal urch. The six years that he filled pastorate constitute the longest m ever served here by any pastor the Methodist denomination. The rk done by him during that period the many improvements made by e congregation show that his posi-n was no sinecure, but one of iciency and hard work.

Besides the Confluence congregan, he had charge of M. E. urches at Johnson Chapel and arnedsville, making 204 communints added to these churches, besides number at Ursina. During the same riod he officiated at 124 funerals.

A number of fine improvements ere made in the church and addional property surrounding the urch was purchased. Among the im-rovements to the church was the stallation of an electric motor, cost-g $500; the purchase of two lots f ground adjoining the church, cost-g $5,000, and paying for paving and t improvements, $1,000. The urchases of land and improvements
 n the Harnedsville church cost $22-00. The Confluence congregation aised the sum of $7,500 for the Retired Preachers fund for the Conference, and also did a lot of work for he Missionary cause and the World's service.

During the same period Rev. Powell

Charles N. Flanagan, U. P. Mack, M.
 Turney, Albert E. Guard, William T.
 Roor, Edward Jefferys, Kate Portney,
 John Reid and son and daughter,
 Louise Hileman, Mary Long, W. W.
 Frazer, Charles Lindeman, Louis
 Barkley, Mary Kretchman, Charles Show, Charles H. Stark, P. V. Nedrow, James R. Brown and Mrs.
 Castile.

Mrs. Beecher Younkin.

Mrs. Vallie Ethel Younkin died in the Memorial Hospital, Johnstown, on Friday, September 8, at the age of 28 years, 10 months and 17 days. She was taken sick on June 6 and entered the hospital on July 16.

She was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs.
 Hahlon Knox and was born in Somerset County on November 12, 1899.
 She was married to Beecher Younkin, April 13, 1918. To them were born five children of whom four survive, the oldest being 9 years and the youngest 6 months old. She is also survived by her parents and her husband and the following sisters and brothers: Mrs. Mary Colfesh; Harnedsville; Mrs. Lauri Mintmier, Somerset; Herbert, John, Lettie,
 Merle, Thelma and Floyd all home.

She joined the Methodist Episcopal church at Harnedsville in 1918. She was a devoted wife and mother and kind neighbor. She will be greatly missed by her husband and family, besides by a large circle of neighbors and friends. The remains were taken to the Knox home in Lower Turkeyfoot Township. The funeral was held in the Church of God, at Kingwood, on Monday, October 1st. Rev. C. W.
 Raley of the Evangelical Church of Rockwood officiating; interment in Kingwood cemetery.

Minor Mention.

A number of State and railroad policemen were here on Tuesday of last week, to admire the beauty of the scenery surrounding Confluence.
 "Only this and nothing more," was the object of the visit.

Andrew Schlossmagle of Johnstown, a former proprietor of the Park Hotel of Confluence, was a business visitor here on Monday.

Daniel Boughner, a student in the University of Detroit, who spent his vacation here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Boughner, left on Sunday to take up his studies for the ensuing year.

Mrs. Daniel Boughner of Washington, D. C., who was visiting her son,
 A. G. Boughner, for several weeks, returned to her home this week, her daughter-in-law, Mrs. A. G. Boughner went with her and is making a short visit at the national capital.

Constable W. S. Bower made a trip last week to Uniontown on legal business.

Mrs. C. A. Miller and Preston Show of town and Miss Mary Hileman, of Rockwood, who was visiting at the Miller home, visited Mrs. Josephine

Mrs. Levi Heinbaugh on Sunday. was here last Saturday, looking after her property.

Mr. and Mrs. George L. Maust were visiting at Homestead on Sunday.

E. R. Levy and family of Berlin were Sunday visitors at the Levy home.

It is expected that M. F. McCabe & Co. will soon commence concreting the section of State road No. 53 between Ursina and Kingwood, now under construction.

Minor Mention.

Arthur Patton has taken the contract for making several carloads of props for John A. Gower.

Howard Peck of Maple Glen bought a fine bunch of young cattle of John A. Merrill and John M. Seehler, recently.

James Shoemaker, one of the fir-est neighbors of Addison Township is helping J. A. Merrill and last Sunday harvest their fall crop.

William Currie, who owns a stoand gasoline station near the West Maryland Railway, is able to around again after a long illness.

Rev. J. S. Garlin, of Confluence and Mrs. J. A. Merrill of this place were dinner guests at the home of H. G. Treasler last Sunday.

In Germany they were Meinert. Now they are Miners, Miners and Minors. Spelling aside, they all are family with a rich history to share.

Finding kin relatively worthwhile

By Gretchen McKay

To Mark Miner and Boots Norton, family is much more than the relatives who live in the area. Their encompasses more than 9,000 aunts, uncles and cousins scattered across the county.

Miner, 36, of Franklin Park, is president of the Miner-Miner-Miner reunion committee and helped organize the family's annual reunion last month. Norton, 63, of Penn Hills was among the more than 110 people there, all members of one extend-broader family. Just a few years ago, Miner says, only 50 households received invitations. Today, the list includes more than 340 names.

Norton started attending the reunion about five years ago, after she met Miner. The idea immediately appealed to her.

"It's important to see what kind of family you really came from. And Mark does such a fabulous job searching out everything. There's never a dull moment," she said.

One reason the reunions are so much ed family. She met Miner about five years ago, when he was researching his lineage. "I didn't know at the time that we had such a big family, because there's not very many of the old relatives living anymore," she said.

Miner and some of his cousins delight in tracing their roots back more than 10 generations to the pioneer days in Fayette County. The family line, in fact, goes back to 1791, when German immigrants Jacob and Maria (Nein) Miner Sr. settled near Mill Run, along the Fayette and Somerset county border.

"I've always had a deep love and respect for family," said Miner, recalling how he grew up knowing all four grandparents as well as three great-grandparents. "And even from childhood, I knew the past was to be valued."

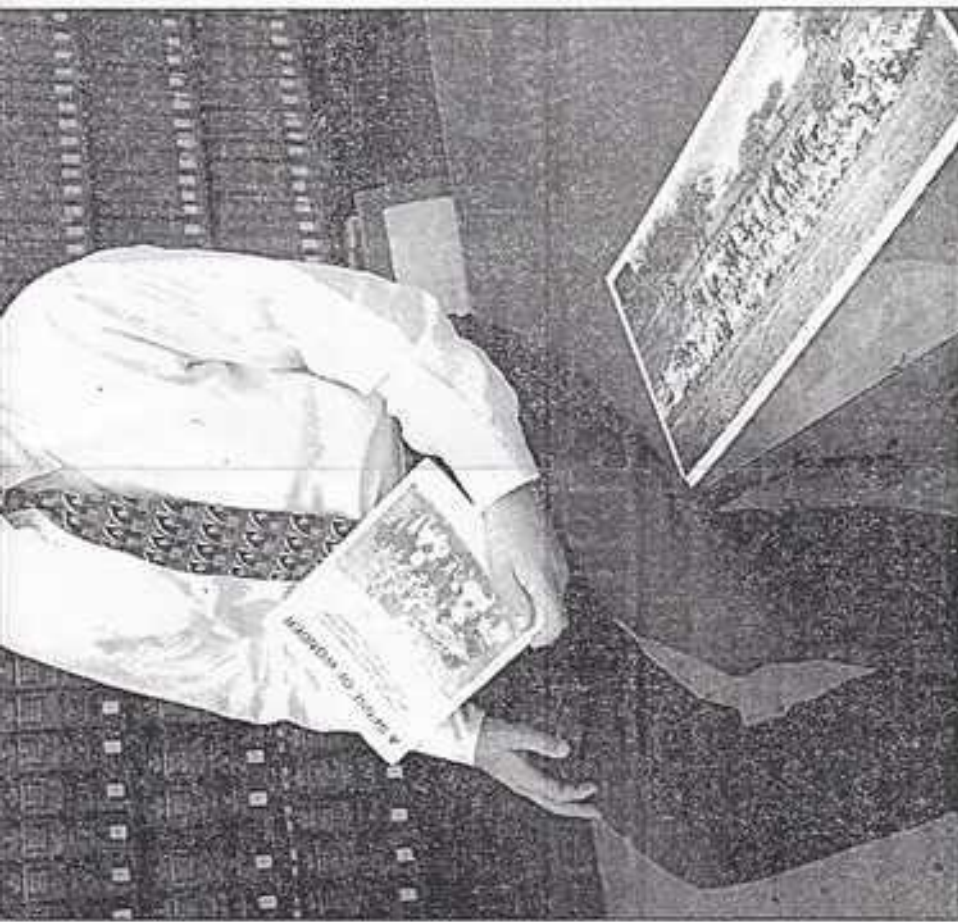

Family vacations, for instance, usually involved visits to such historical sites as the Civil War battlefields at Gettysburg and Monticello, Thomas Jefferson's home in Charlottesville, Va.

When he was 10, Miner traveled to Washington, Pa., to visit his grandmother, then about 90. Though she couldn't remember day-to-day events, she recalled with extreme clarity growing up on a farm in West Virginia. As the youngster listened wide-eyed to her stories and paged through the family album with its tin-type photos, he realized he was hooked.

"It opened up a whole new world for me," Miner said. "It dawned on me the people who made up my relatives were also historical figures."

Years later, an aunt gave Miner that album on the condition that he not only study the family tree, but also someday go out and try to find these people. Miner agreed, and over the years wrote letters here and there, and wrote down the stories of older relatives. In 1985, he visited the family homestead in the tiny town of Kingwood, Somerset County, where his great-great-great-grandfather had farmed about 500 acres in the 1830s.

To his surprise, Miner discovered that some of his distant cousins still lived in the area. Some spelled their names differently. In fact, the original German "Meinert" is spelled three other ways — Miner, Miner and Minor. Wanting to know more about them, Miner located a few relatives in the Somerset County history books.

Mark Miner, above, has been arranging reunions for his family for the past three years. He is holding a booklet he made that traces the family's history.

He also started researching in local libraries, poring through old census tallies and scanning decades-old newspapers for stories in an effort to trace the family lineage. He also talked to older relatives, and studied his own family's collection of papers. A long-forgotten birth certificate in the basement of his grandmother's house, for instance, documented the family's ties to the town of Kingwood.

Then, in 1989, on a visit the family farm in Kingwood, he chanced upon some of his distant relatives holding a family reunion that very day. He dropped by, explained how he was related — and was welcomed into the fold.

It wasn't the first get-together in family history. In 1913, distant cousins had organized the first family reunion at Ferncliff Park in Ohio, Fayette County. The event, which drew 125 family members, was so successful, yearly reunions continued well into the '40s, but tailed off due to World War II.

In the mid-'80s, a group of cousins from the Kingwood area revived the yearly celebration, after meeting at the funeral of their mutual grandmother. Over the next few years, as they continued to grow, the reunions were opened up to a much who you will run into. One year, she met some of the relatives pictured in her grandparents' wedding album. Another time, she discovered one of her husband's relatives (a Bittinger) was one of her relatives as well, having married into the Miner family.

"It's such a small world," Norton said.

Miner isn't the only one to contribute to the family's written history. Many cousins have come forward to share old photographs, letters, diaries and newspaper clippings — all items that help bring the long-lost family members to life, and allow the clan to catch a glimpse of the past.

"So many people around the region have been eager to do research, too," he says.

Their hard work has paid off: Three years ago, 4,500 relatives had been identified. Today, that list has grown to include more than 9,400 names. And of those, Miner estimates, at least half are still alive.

Like any historical researcher, he's encountered his share of roadblocks — female relatives who marry and change their name, cousins not interested in sharing their stories. And every year, as relatives die, memories that weren't tapped are lost forever.

"The past doesn't like to give itself up very easily," Miner said.

In the early '90s, reunion organizers decided to devote each get-together to a particular theme. In 1994, they settled on the Civil War, after discovering 23 Union soldiers in the family tree.

Subsequent reunions focused on the family's German roots and on the sheer number of descendants. This year's reunion, held July 12, honored the group's more than 200 educators. More than 110 people attended.

"Even if it's only one afternoon a year, it allows you to pause and connect, and think about the forces that have helped shape you both as an individual, and as families over the generations," he said.

Miner says the past can help people understand what they are today.

"We've all become so disconnected. With the fast pace of today's society, family is very hard to work into one's lives. Relationships take work."

Mark your calendars NOW for the 1999 Miner-Miner-Miner Reunion

COAL, COKE AND STEEL

Honoring Our Family's Role Helping Build Our Nation's "Industrial Backbone"

Come join us and:

Meet "Andrew Carnegie" • Salute Hundreds of Our Clan's Coal, Coke and Steel Workers Tour a Coal Mine • Meet "Long-Lost" Cousins • Enjoy a Picnic Lunch

*An actor portraying Andrew Carnegie will visit us on Saturday ...
And we'll tour a restored coal mine on Sunday*

SATURDAY AND SUNDAY, JULY 10-11, 1999 -- RAIN OR SHINE!

Saturday - Kingwood Picnic Grounds (Odd Fellows Grove), Kingwood, PA
13 miles south of Somerset along Route 281

Sunday - Tour-Ed Mine, Tarentum, PA -- Located at Exit #14 of the Allegheny Valley Expressway (Route 28) about 6 miles from Exit 5 of PA Turnpike

Activities for Saturday, July 10th - Kingwood Picnic Grove

PAYING TRIBUTE

At this year's Miner-Miner-Miner Reunion, we will honor hundreds of our extended cousins who have labored over the years in coal mines, coke ovens, and steel mills. As a group, they have contributed to our nation's vast industrial output in the past century and a half. The work also has taken a deadly toll, and at least 10 of our cousins have lost their lives in work-related accidents.

ANDREW CARNEGIE

An actor portraying steel baron Andrew Carnegie will be our special guest. "Carnegie" will tell us about his life and times, and the impact that his steelmaking had on building our country. Many of our cousins have worked for Carnegie-related companies, including the H.C. Frick Coke Co., Carnegie Steel and U.S. Steel. "Carnegie" comes to us through "Stages in History," the resident professional theatre department of the Senator Heinz Pittsburgh Regional History Center.

HOW YOU CAN HELP DOCUMENT OUR HERITAGE

We plan to honor our cousins two ways: 1) display photo panels around the picnic pavilion, and 2) publish a special keepsake booklet with the names, career info and photos of our cousin-laborers.

If your Miner-Miner-Miner relatives or their spouses -- father, grandfather, uncles, cousins -- ever worked at the mines, ovens and mills, please send us a list with their names, jobs and worksites. If you have photos of them at work, or in uniform, would you be willing to lend the photos to us ahead of time to copy and use? If so, please send them to Mark Miner by the deadline of July 1. Your originals will be returned immediately.

Example:

John Jones - Husband of Mary Miner. Worked at U.S. Steel's Homestead Works for 35 years, retiring in 1975.
Enoch Miner - son of Henry A. and Matilda (Rose) Miner. Coke drawer at H.C. Frick Coke Co.'s Davidson Works in the early 1900s.

Also, if you have any old hardhats, miners' lamps, and tools, please bring them for a show and tell.

SLIGHT CHANGE IN FOOD FORMAT

One of the most enjoyable things about our reunion is the delicious food everyone brings. This year, we would like to ask some of you to bring a meat dish. Others of you can still bring the same delicious side dishes or desserts as you have in the past. This will eliminate three problems for us -- borrowing and transporting gas grills to cook hot dogs and hamburgers -- recruiting cooks to stand over the hot grills -- and the cost and effort to buy fresh meat and bring it to the picnic grove.

Itinerary for Saturday

10:30 a.m. Begin arriving and mingling.

Noon Blessing and picnic feast. Please bring a meat dish, side dish or a dessert. A freewill donation will be taken afterward to offset costs of the picnic grove rental and entertainment. No alcoholic beverages, please.

1 p.m. Group photo taken by cousin Sid Miller, a photographer with the Waynesboro (PA) Record Herald.

1:30 p.m. Show 'n tell of any coal, coke or steelmaking artifacts of your families, such as hardhats, miners' lamps, and tools. We would love to hear the stories behind your treasured objects. Prizes will be awarded for the oldest, youngest and furthest-traveling guests.

2:15 p.m. Financial report by treasurer Melda (Miner) Bittinger.

2:30 p.m. Visit by Andrew Carnegie. After his remarks, you can ask him questions or pose with him for a photo.

3:30 p.m. A mid-afternoon snack will be served.

Fun for the Kids, Too!

The reunion is not just for adults! Games will be held for both younger and older children. We hope to again organize a softball hitting contest.

What to Bring:

Though there is plenty of seating at the pavilion, you may wish to bring a nice comfortable lawn chair. July weather in Kingwood is usually hot but can be unpredictable. Be sure to bring a change of clothes (jeans, sweatshirt) just in case. If you have old family photos, letters, Bibles or heirlooms to show, please bring them, too.

Activities for Sunday, July 11th - Tour-Ed Coal Mine

Many of our cousins worked in coal mines, such as Frank Minerd (see arrow), son of Charles B. and Ada (Tressler) Minerd, shown here at the Royal Mine near Uniontown, PA

Many of us have heard about coal mines from our fathers or grandfathers, but have never actually been inside one ourselves. At this year's Minerd-Miner-Miner Reunion, you finally will have the opportunity.

Beginning promptly at 11 a.m. on Sunday, July 11, we will tour the Tour-Ed Mine & Museum in Tarentum, PA. The tour will last for two hours. Afterward, we will have a bring-your-own brown-bag picnic lunch together in the large picnic pavilion in the grassy lawn outside the mine.

The Tour-Ed Mine is a restored coal mine now open to the public. You will see, hear and feel what it would have been like to mine coal. All the guides are experienced miners. They'll demonstrate various types of equipment. You will hear a brief presentation on various types of hats, lamps, and rescue gear. You will even learn the first thing all old time miners ate out of their lunch pail every day. The nearby museum has a collection of thousands of mining artifacts and related items dating to 1850, representing from the primitive to the very modern in mining technology.

What to Wear - Please bring a light jacket because the underground temperature averages 52° to 55° year-round. Wear comfortable walking shoes.

How to Get to the Mine - Take the Pennsylvania Turnpike to Exit #5 (Harmarville Interchange). Bear to the right off the exit, and drive past 3 or 4 stoplights until you see Bob Evans Restaurant on the left. Turn right onto Route 28 North (Allegheny Valley Expressway), until you get to Exit #14. Take the exit, and bear to the left. Turn left onto Bull Creek Road, and look for signs to the Tour-Ed Mine & Museum. Turn right onto Ridge Road, and look for signs.

Cost of the Tour - If our group has at least 25 people, the cost will be $4.50 per adult and $2.50 per child. Tours are limited in size. If you want to take the tour, let us know by July 1. If we cannot get a group of 25, then the cost will be $6 per adult and $3 for children.

Restrooms - Restrooms are located inside the Tour-Ed Mine Museum, and portable restrooms are outside.

So we can plan for food and the tour, please RSVP by July 1 to:

Mark Miner, 374 Third Street East, Beaver, PA 15009 - email: minerma@bipc.com - phone 724-770-0175 or Rosella (Resh) Miner, 192 Miner-Hickory Road, Grantsville, MD 21536, phone 301-245-4209

The Reunion Committee:

Mark A. Miner, President, Wexford, PA • Melda (Miner) Bittinger, Treasurer, Grantsville, MD
Rosella (Resh) Miner, Secretary, Grantsville, MD

Research Updates for Miner-Miner-Miner History Buffs

15 cousin-veterans stood at last-year's reunion while an honor guard presented the flag during a moving ceremony honoring our clan's wartime dead

1998 Reunion Honored Cousin-Veterans

A crowd of 112 at last year's reunion saluted more than 300 cousin-soldiers who served in the U.S. Armed Forces during wartime. Two cousins spoke about their ordeals -- Robert E. Miner, who at age 22 was the senior surviving officer of the sunken U.S.S. Frederick C. Davis; and Donald L. Plants, an explosives expert who survived many months as a Nazi POW in Germany.

The Color Guard of the Veterans of Foreign Wars of Somerset, Post 554, and the Somerset Marine Corps League performed a stirring ceremony which included presentation of the flag, a 21-gun salute and the playing of taps. 15 cousin-veterans stood in a semi-circle, while President Reagan's speech about the 40th anniversary of D-Day was recited, and the names of the 14 known cousin-servicemen killed at war, were read out loud.

Aimee Walker's Really Cool Website

Pioneer Recognized as Revolutionary War Patriot

All of us trace our line back to Jacob and Maria (Nein) Miner Sr., pioneers of Fayette/Somerset Counties, PA, in 1791. Jacob was just recognized by the Daughters of the American Revolution (DAR) as a Revolutionary War patriot, and one of our cousins has been admitted to DAR membership. Jacob served in a Berks County (PA) Militia, Captain Foch's Company, 3rd Class.

We are trying to gather the documentation needed to place an official military marker at Jacob's unmarked grave at the Indian Creek Baptist Church in Mill Run, PA.

12,000 and Counting

The count of our known cousins and spouses continues to mushroom. We now know of 12,300, up from 11,000 last year, and up from 9,400 the year before.

Have You Done Your Own Research?

If you have done your own family research and would like to tell us about it at the reunion, we'd love to hear from you. This is an opportunity to share information and broaden everyone's knowledge of Miner-Miner-Miner history.

Future Reunion Themes

Our reunions have themes to help our diverse group of cousins "connect" and to learn more about our family's long-term role in our communities. Past themes were:

- 1998 Honoring wartime veterans
- 1997 A sense of wonder -- clan's role in the field of education
- 1996 9,000 descendants and counting
- 1995 Our German connection
- 1994 22 family Civil War soldiers
- 1993 80th anniversary of 1st reunion

Future reunions may focus on:

- Railroading -- An extraordinary number of cousins worked for the B&O, Pennsy and Western Maryland. At least 10 cousins lost their lives in related accidents.
- Arts, Letters, Sciences & Clergy -- Many have been artists, film actors, writers, journalists, scientists, engineers, physicians and clergy, improving the quality of life for countless Americans.
- 60+ Years with Fallingwater -- Our family has been closely involved for 60+ years with Fallingwater, arguably America's most famous modern house, and designed by world-renowned architect Frank Lloyd Wright.

Flashback ... News of the 1920 Reunion

Connellsville (PA) Daily Courier - Aug. 17, 1920

Miner Reunion.

Obiopolis was the scene of a large and happy gathering Saturday when members of the Miner family assembled for their eighth annual reunion. Rev. D. E. Miner of Dunbar delivered the principal address of the day. At noon an elaborate dinner was served. The next reunion will be held on the second Saturday in August, 1921 at Obiopolis. Among the guests present were Mr. and Mrs. Ephraim Miner of Markleton. The former is a veteran of the civil war and is the oldest representative of the Miner family. Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Freed and daughter, Miss Mary of Dunbar township; Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Miner and Mr. and Mrs. Silas Miner of Connellsville, were also guests.

Persistent digging uncovers family's roots

Wexford man documents Minerd-Miner-Miner clan with ties to more than 11,000 local relatives

By Micheline Roller
THE DAILY COURIER

More than 25 years ago, images in an aging grandmother's tinsy album piqued a young boy's interest in genealogy and launched him on a quest to uncover every root, branch and twig of his family tree.

Today, Mark Miner of Wexford can document his ties to more than 11,000 relatives of the Minerd-Miner-Miner clan, many of whom were prominent citizens of Fayette County communities.

The album, later passed to Miner by an aunt with the stipulation he reconnect with his kin, marked the beginning of his search. By 1963, through letters and oral history, he had located about 100 relatives.

"That's when I became a paper archaeologist," Miner said, ferreting through court records to find deeds, lawsuits, divorce records, any documents that would spin another thread in the web of family that stretched farther with each new discovery.

Miner's research traced his ancestors to 1791 when pioneers Jacob and Maria (Neim) Minerd, German immigrants, settled on Maple Summit near Mill Run on the border between Somerset and Fayette counties. He has identified seven of the couple's 12 children. From this first family, Miner said, a tremendous number of descendants made their homes in Fayette County, working on farms, in mines and coke ovens, on the railroads and in education. Scions of later generations entered diverse professions, such as medicine and local government.

Many sons and daughters of every occupation served their country and these veterans were honored on July 11 at the 1998 Minerd-Miner-Miner Reunion held at the Kingwood Picnic Grounds near Somerset. This year's theme was "Saluting Our Wartime Heroes." Of nearly 300 family veterans of the Civil War, War of 1812, Spanish-American War, both World Wars, Korea, Vietnam and the Persian Gulf, more than 130 hailed from Fayette County.

Robert E. Minerd of Scarsdale, N.Y. was one of two guest speakers at the reunion. Minerd's parents were born in Mount Pleasant, he said. His mother lived in Connellsville for a time, and he has many happy memories of visiting friends and relatives there.

Minerd served in World War II and was one of three officers who survived when a Nazi submarine torpedoed and sank the U.S.S. Frederick C. Davis on April 24, 1945, only weeks before the end of the war.

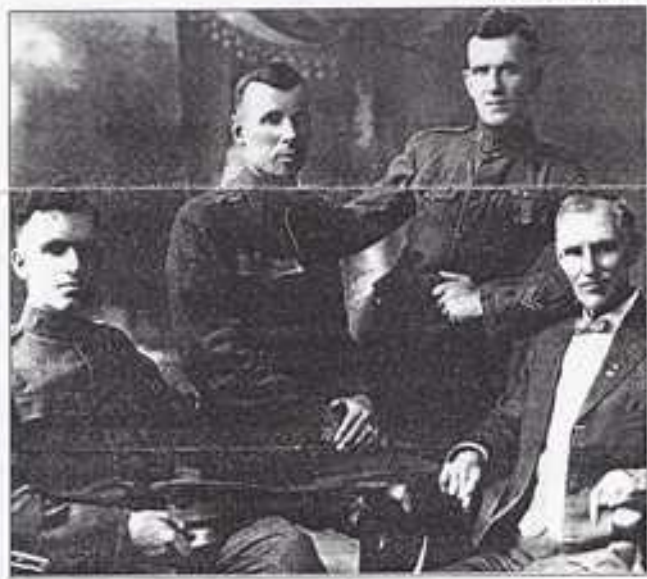

"It sank in 16 minutes," Minerd recalled. "I don't know how long I was in the water."

As a surviving officer, Minerd had the somber task of traveling to Washington D.C. to complete final paperwork and write letters of condolence to the families of 115 soldiers who died during the attack.

Minerd's ship was part of a destroyer escort fleet accompanying an aircraft carrier. Destroyer escorts were called the "tin can fleet," he said, because they were lighter than a destroyer and not armored for battle. The Frederick C. Davis was the last U.S. Navy vessel downed in World War II. The submarine that launched the torpedo did not fare any better.

"They (the remaining escort ships) sunk the sub that got us," Minerd reported with satisfaction.

Minerd's father and grandfather organized the first family reunion in Ohio in 1913. The gatherings continued until the 1930s, when they were discontinued for half a century. They resumed in 1985.

"There are many, many people who have contributed to this work," Mark Miner said.

Persistent digging uncovers local family's roots

PERSISTENT FROM/B1

Most of the accolades, he said, are due Eugene Podraza, formerly of Mt. Pleasant, who is now an educator in New Jersey.

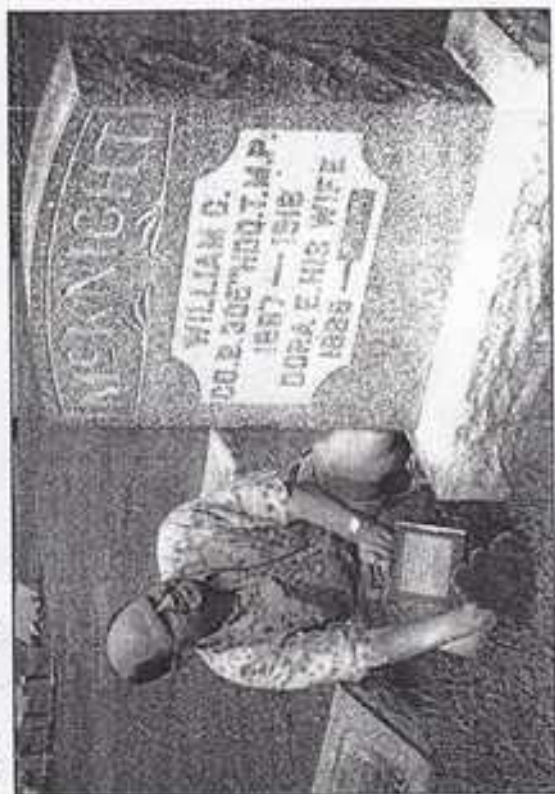

"He really has led the charge of searching for Fayette County and Somerset County relatives who left this area and went west," Miner said.

A notable Miner who eventually made his home in Kansas was Samuel, proprietor of the Fayette Springs Resort Hotel in the early 1870s. The hotel was praised in the Uniontown press. Mark Miner said, for its "mineral waters, tennis and fiddler music."

The hotelier eventually went bankrupt and disappeared from the area. He popped into Miner's life more than a year ago when an Internet search unearthed a fellow genealogist and distant relative in Pittsburg, Kansas who was seeking information about Miners who moved west from Pennsylvania in the 1890s.

Podraza published a newsletter for the 1995 reunion. "Our German Connection" tracked the family back to Friedrich and Eva Maria Meinert who last lived in Swillinge, Germany in 1730. They resurfaced in Berks County in 1734, having emigrated to the United States during the previous four years.

Miner said Somerset County Courthouse records revealed a lawsuit filed for slander in 1828, when one cousin called another a thief for stealing a sheep. Legal documents were written in German and English, Miner said. He and Mark Miner places marker on grave of his ancestor William Curtis McKnight, 1887-1918, at Dickerson Run cemetery in Vanderbilt. McKnight died in France during World War I.

Podraza hope studying the dialect will help lead them to the regions of Germany from which the original Meinerts emigrated.

For Miner, the July 11 reunion started another endeavor, marking the graves of family members killed in wartime. His trek led him to Vanderbilt and a search of the Dickerson Run Cemetery for the headstone of William Curtis McKnight, who died in France during World War I. Miner placed a marker and bouquet of silk roses at the grave. His next stop, he said, was Greenlick Cemetery and the final resting place of Richard N. Reese, the last of nine graves to be decorated. Of 14 war dead, the remaining five were buried outside the United States, never found or never brought home.

In Connellsville City Hall hangs a portrait of the Miner probably most familiar to Fayette County residents, Dr. H. Daniel Miner. He served as mayor of Connellsville and led the ceremony for the dedication of the city's military honor roll in July 1943. He also served as Fayette County treasurer. He and his brothers, William A. and Ewing D., served in World War I, as did their father, the Rev. David E. Min-erd.

The patriarch was a famous Uniontown preacher and blacksmith. Records indicate, according to Mark Miner, that David E. Miner officiated at 10,000 weddings and funerals during his 60 years of service. He founded the Greenwood United Methodist Church in Connellsville in 1921 and the Calvary United Methodist Church in Uniontown in 1894.

H. Daniel Miner dedicated a stained glass window to his parents' memory which remains in the Uniontown church today. Mark Miner was invited to speak about the former mayor and his family at the church's 100th anniversary celebration.

Brothers William and Ewing Miner served as assistant county treasurer and treasurer of the Dunbar School Board, respectively.

Miner speaks of his ancestors as if they were familiar friends rather than distant relatives. Although he is proud of their accomplishments, he said they were not much different from the other courageous and hardy immigrants who pioneered development in this area. Anyone willing to dig deep enough, he believes, could discover relatives as remarkable as his.

"I'm not just trying to collect names from an anthropological point of view," he explained. Identification of his descendants' occupations helps quantify the significant contributions these people made to Fayette, Somerset and Washington counties, he said.

WHO'S WHO

IN THE

MINERD-MINER-MINOR FAMILY

The First Four Generations of Descendants of Pioneers
Jacob Miner Sr. and Maria Margaret Neün, of Fayette/Somerset County, Pa.:

THE FIRST MEMBERS OF OUR FAMILY to settle in Western Pennsylvania were Jacob and Maria Margaret (Neün) Miner Sr. They moved to Maple Summit along the border of Fayette and Somerset Counties in 1791, where they built a log cabin, cleared land for a farm and boiled salt along the Youghiogheny River. They moved there from Emmitsburg, Md., where they had briefly lived after beginning married life in Oley Twp., near Reading, Berks Co., Pa., where both had grown up. Jacob's parents, Friedrich and Eva Maria (Weber) Meinert, had settled in Oley in about 1730 after emigrating from Germany. From 1791 forward Jacob's descendants spelled their name "Minerd" -- a unique spelling which distinguishes this clan from any other known in the United States.

Jacob Sr. and Maria had 12 children (of whom 7 are known), at least 67 grandchildren and at least 302 great-grandchildren. The pioneers' known children were:

1. Jacob Miner Jr. of Kingwood, Pa.Pages 2-3
2. Martha (Minerd) Imel Harbaugh near Scullton, Pa.Page 4
3. Henry Miner of near Connellsville, Pa.Pages 5-6
4. Frederick Miner Sr. of Sego, OhioPages 7-8
5. Daniel Miner Sr. of Sego and Cardington, OhioPage 9
6. Burket Miner of Kingwood, W. Va.Page 10
7. Mrs. John Ream of Ursina, Pa. (nothing more known)

Over the years the family exploded in size and scattered in countless directions. Several branches dropped the "d" from the name and spell it "Miner" and "Minor." On Aug. 21, 1913, exactly 125 descendants gathered at Ohiopyle, Pa., for the first-ever Miner Reunion. At that event, cousin Allen E. Harbaugh gave a landmark speech about the history of the family. Today, the count of known descendants and their spouses is more than 10,000, and growing.

After a layoff of many decades, the Miner-Miner-Minor Reunion was reorganized in the 1980s. It is held the second Saturday of each July at the Odd Fellows Grove in Kingwood, Somerset County, Pa.

The names of the known members of the first four generations of the family are listed inside.

This booklet was originally published as a free handout at the 1993 reunion. It has been substantially and regularly updated as more names and relationships are proven. It is intended to be the beginning rather than the end of a discovery process, because there is much more to be learned. Hopefully this booklet will create awareness, stimulate interest and curiosity, and encourage others to enjoy the magic of their own discoveries. Future research should reveal many more thousands of offspring.

The next steps will be to learn the stories and find photo images of the lives of these hundreds of early cousins to measure their massive, combined impact on American society.

Cousin Eugene Podraza of Lawrenceville, N.J., primarily has been responsible for identifying the pioneers' offspring who themselves were pioneers of Ohio, West Virginia and the Midwest. He has contributed significantly to this work.

For more information, contact reunion president Mark A. Miner, 2529 Matterhorn Drive, Wexford, PA 15090.

Family of Jacob Miner Jr. and Catherine Younkin:

Jacob (1780-1842) and Catherine (1787-1847) lived on a 500-acre farm at Hexabarger near Kingwood, Somerset Co., Pa. They had 9 children and 53+ grandchildren. He was a farmer and distiller, and in politics was a Whig. They were members of the Christian Church of Turkeyfoot. Jacob Jr. died after being crushed while chopping down a tree. His will is on file at the Somerset County courthouse. Catherine died of stomach trouble. They are buried in unmarked graves at the site of the former Fairview Church of the Brethren near Kingwood.

Family of Martha Miner and 1. Jacob Imel, 2. Leonard Harbaugh Sr.:

Martha (1789-1878) was born during the family's brief residence in Emmitsburg, Md. As a girl she carried provisions to her father who boiled salt at the Salt Spring bottom at Victoria along the Youghiogheny River. She first married Jacob Imel (1785-1816) and had 2 children. After his untimely death, she married widower Leonard Harbaugh Sr. (1780-1867) who had 8 children from his 1st marriage. They went on to have five more children of their own and lived near Cranberry Glade, Somerset County, Pa. All told, she had 7 of her own children and 27+ grandchildren. She told stories of her life as a pioneer girl to her grandson Allen Edward Harbaugh which formed the basis for his landmark history of the family, written in 1913, called Sketch of Miner Families - Historical and Traditional.

Family of Daniel Miner Sr. and 1. Mary (?), 2. Margaret "Peggy" Fluckey:

Daniel (1776-1854) is almost certainly one of the pioneers' sons. He had a close relationship with his brother, Frederick Miner Sr., who is proven to be ours. In 1812, they jointly bought land in Sego, Perry Co., Ohio. As well, Daniel's 1st wife rests with Frederick and his two wives in the same row of plots at the Hopewell Cemetery near Sego. After the death of Daniel's 1st wife Mary (1779-1813), he was left with a family of 7 children. He soon remarried, and had 10 more children. In 1835, Daniel and his 2nd wife Peggy (1793-1855) moved to near Cardington, Morrow Co., Ohio, where they are buried. All told, Daniel had 17 children and at least 40 grandchildren. The grave of Daniel's 1st wife at Hopewell is the oldest known grave marker in the family.

Family of Burket Miner and Frances Skinner:

Burket (1774?-1850+) and Frances owned land in Turkeyfoot Twp., Somerset Co., Pa., and moved to Preston Co., W.Va., before 1810. He operated a grist mill on Greens Run near Kingwood, "one of the earliest in the county." He may be the same "Burket Minor" who served in the War of 1812 from Preston Co. as an Ensign in Christian Conn's Company of the Virginia Militia. He and "Frankie" had 6 daughters and at least 38 grandchildren. The last known record of Burket is the 1850 census, when he was listed as a 74-year-old laborer residing with 66-year-old farmer William Roberts in Preston Co., W.Va.

Dear Donna:

Thank you for your reply about the news article reporting Mr. and Mrs. Grant Younkin's visit in Kansas with Mr. and Mrs. John Vough. In the interim time since I sent the article to you, I stumbled onto information which seems to provide the answer.

The article reported a news item from Rockwood, so it's logical to assume that Grant Younkin was the son of William Shedrick and Caroline (Cupp) Younkin, all of whom lived near Rockwood. John Vough turns out to have been Grant Younkin's nephew, the illegitimate son of Grant's sister, Missouri Younkin. At the time of the Kansas visit in 1913, Grant would have been 44 years old, and his nephew John would have been 34 years old.

Note the enclosed 1880 census. It shows that in William S. Younkin's household were his 18-year-old daughter "Zourie" [short for Missouri] and his 1-year-old grandson, John Vought. Also living in the household was 11-year-old Grant Younkin. Thus, despite a 10-year age difference, Grant Younkin and John Vought would have grown up together.

As further evidence, note the enclosed Somerset County deed, dated 1879, the year before the census referenced above. It states that Missouri Younkin bore a son out of wedlock on March 30, 1879, and that the father of the illegitimate child was John Vought. In the agreement, Missouri's father, William S. Younkin, released Vought from any future financial and legal responsibilities as father of the baby, in return for a payment from Vought to the tune of $225 cash. William S. Younkin also promised to "keep and maintain said child at his own expense."

The baby apparently carried his father's name but for all other intents and purposes was a Younkin and a resident of his grandfather's household. Thus, the 1913 article shows that young Vought later married and moved to Kansas.

If you spot any holes in my logic, please let me know.

Sincerely,

Enclosures

EMERGENCY OPERATION

Rockwood, Mar. 2—Ellouise Younkin, 15 daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clark Younkin, underwent an emergency operation for appendicitis at Somerset Community Hospital.

YFNB 30 APR 1938 P33

PNEUMONIA IS FATAL TO WIFE OF LOCAL MERCHANT

Mrs. W. F. Mitchell, Who Died Sunday, Was Descended From
The Earliest American Stock.

Mrs. W. F. Mitchell, 70-year-old wife of the well-known local grocer, died Sunday afternoon, December 19, at the family residence here, a victim of terminal pneumonia.

Funeral services took place at the Methodist Episcopal church at two o'clock Tuesday afternoon. Burial was in Memorial Park cemetery, Topeka.

The pallbearers were Clarence Youcum, Nels Hammarlund, David Urbansky and Frank Allen of St. Marys; C. P. Aul of Lawrence and Sam Shannon of Manhattan. The Rev. Fred Johnson officiated.

Sadie Younklin Mitchell was a daughter of the American Revolution in fact, not fancy. Born in South Connellsville, Pennsylvania on October 25, 1867, she was a direct descendant of the Drakes and the Tannehills of Revolutionary war renown.

With her husband and family she came to Kansas in 1891 to occupy a farm northwest of Topeka. It was in 1914 that "Dad" Mitchell decided to open a grocery store in St. Marys, better known in those days as the Union Tea store.

Three years ago last Thanksgiving day, Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell celebrated the golden jubilee anniversary of their marriage.

Mrs. Mitchell was loved by all who knew her intimately. In recent years, particularly, was she an inspiring figure to her friends. Illness was a cross she had to bear for five or six years, but nobody ever heard a protest from Sadie Mitchell. She accepted her lot with dignity and courage, and the example she set will not soon be forgotten.

Mrs. Mitchell is survived by her husband and six children, thirteen grandchildren and one great grandchild. The children are George Mitchell of Kansas City; Roy of Detroit; Noly of Auburn; Earl of St. Mary; Mrs. Grace Bean of Auburn and Mrs. Eva Bean of Topeka.

WILLIAM S. YOUNKIN

William S. Younklin, one of the oldest citizens of Black township, died at his home south of Rockwood last Sunday. He was born January 15, 1838, and at his death was aged 85 years, 6 months and 23 days. He was a son of John Younklin and was raised in Black township. He is survived by his widow and three children: Lee Grant Younklin, Mrs. George E. Wingard and Mrs. J. E. Hauger, all of Rockwood.

The funeral was held from the home on Tuesday afternoon, conducted by the Rev. L. M. Bartlebaugh, pastor of the Rockwood Evangelical church. Interment was in the Rhoads Cemetery. Undertaker L. D. Hechler had charge of the burial.

MRS. CAROLINE YOUNKIN

Mrs. Caroline Younklin, widow of the late W. S. Younklin, died on Tuesday after a short illness of pneumonia, aged 81 years. She was a daughter of Thomas Capps, who resided on the farm in Black township on which Mrs. and Mr. Younklin spent practically their entire life. Mrs. Younklin died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. E. Hauger, of South Rockwood, where she had been residing since the death of her husband less than a year ago. The funeral was held on Thursday afternoon from the Hauger home, with interment in the Rhoads Cemetery. Services were conducted by the Rev. L. M. Bartlebaugh, of Ellerslie, Md., former pastor of the local Evangelical church, assisted by the present pastor, Rev. C. W. Haley. Surviving are three children: Grant Younklin, Mrs. G. E. Wingard and Mrs. J. E. Hauger, all of Rockwood.

Mrs. Hauger Lived Full, Happy Life

Mrs. Ella (Younkin) Hauger, aged 60 years, wife of J. E. Hauger of Black Township, passed away at her home Sunday morning, February 6th, at 8:30 o'clock, a.m.

Mrs. Hauger's health had been impaired for about 32 years having been a suffer from asthma. She was able to be about her home until about four weeks ago, although her condition gradually grew worse she was not bed-fast until about the last three days. During the last few years, she developed a very severe heart condition which proved fatal.

Mr. and Mrs. Hauger conducted a grocery store near the Western Maryland Depot for 16 years. On account of Mrs. Hauger's health the store was sold to Mr. A. C. Meyers. Mrs. Hauger will be remembered by her many friends made during that time.

She was a beloved wife and a devoted christian mother. Despite her ailment she was always cheery and apparently enjoyed life. She was an active worker in the Rockwood Church of the Brethren, and has been a member since the church was organized.

Mrs. Hauger was a daughter of the late William S. and Carolyn Younklin deceased, also of Black Township. She was born January 1, 1878 near Rockwood.

Mrs. Ella (Younkin) Hauger and Jonathan E. Hauger were united in marriage October 21, 1898.

Surviving in addition to her husband are three daughters: Mrs. Olive Younklin, Mrs. Grace Eagle and Mrs. Edna Sembrer, also one grand daughter, Ellouise Younklin and one brother, Grant Younklin, all of Rockwood, and the following sisters and nephews: Mrs. Thomas Kearns of Cleveland, O.; Mrs. Sheldon Barron, of Lavanville; Harry Miller, of Unity, Pa., and George Younklin of Rockwood.

Besides her parents, three sisters and one brother preceded her in death: Thomas Wilbert Younklin, Missouri (Younkin) Wingard, Edith (Younkin) Miller and Elizabeth (Younkin) Wable all of this place.

Funeral services were conducted at the home Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, conducted by Rev. Walter F. Berkebile and assisted by Rev. W. K. Kulp, of Windber.

Interment was made in the I.O.O.F. cemetery, under the direction of local morticians, Mills & Mickey.

J. HARVEY YOUNKIN
FORMER TEACHER; SON OF CIVIL WAR SOLDIER

The funeral service for J. Harvey Younklin, who died at the Connells-ville State Hospital, was held Thurs- day afternoon at Sims' Funeral Home, with Rev. R. E. Shober, pastor of the Church of the Brethren, officiat- ing. Burial was in Chestnut Hill Cemetery.

Mr. Younklin was 79 years old. He was born July 4, 1861, the son of Jacob and Mary Christian Younklin. He was left an orphan at the age of two years, his father having been killed in the Civil War and his mother dying soon afterward. He was educated at the Uniontown Soldiers Orphans School at Unionville, being a student there from the time he was eight until 16 years of age. For sev- eral years he was a school teacher at Morgan, Dry Hill and other places near Connellsville. Later he was an organ and piano salesman. On ac- count of advancing age and crippled condition which required him to work with a crutch and a cane he was un- able to work the latter years of his life.

Younklin Funeral Today.
The funeral service for J. Harvey Younklin will be held at 4 o'clock this afternoon at the funeral home of J. V. Sims in North Pineburg street. Rev. D. H. Stevens, pastor of the First Baptist Church, will officiate. Inter- ment will be in Hill Grove Cemetery.

Harvey YOUNKIN - [In reading this you will probably become a little confused but if you have any questions, don't hesitate to ask]
-minor child of Jacob M. and Sarah (Miller) Younkin. Filed by his guardian John W. SHERBONDY from Elm Twp., Fayette Co., Pa. [in 1865 Mr. SHERBONDY was 42 yrs. old].

Jacob M. was a Private in Co. B 85th Penn. Reg't- Capt Zellers Co. he enlisted 21 Sept 1861 at Bradford, Pa. - mustered in 7 Nov 1861 in Uniontown, Pa. ; killed in the Battle of Fair Oaks/ Seven Pines, Virginia 31 May 1862.
Jacob married #1 - 26 June 1859 Mary Jane CHRISTNER, dau. of Levi CHRISTNER of Springfield Twp., Fayette Co. Pa., by Rev. Adam F. Snyder, Minister of the Du. co. d. Church in Upper Turkeyfoot Twp., Somerset Co., Pa. [the minister's affidavit stated he was a Minister of the Mennonite church]
Jacob and Mary Jane resided from the time of their marriage until he was mustered in Springfield. Harvey was born to this union on 7 Jul 1860 - the midwives were Rebecca R(K?)OOSER & Catharine CHRISTNER. Jacob and Mary Jane were never divorced. After Jacob's death Mary Jane married 23 Nov 1862 Daniel K. GRIM of Fayette Co., Pa.

Jacob - m#2 16 Nov 1861 Sarah MILLER [in 1862 Sarah was 26 yrs old] by Rev. A.L. Petty of the Methodist-Episcopal church on 16 Nov 1861 at Uniontown, Fayette Co., Pa. Jacob was at this time at 'Camp Fayette' in Uniontown. Sarah filed a Pension claim as a widow [no children] prior to Mr. Sherbondy filing for the child, Harvey. Sarah was paid under certificate # 1393 until 4 Sep 1865 - about that time Mr. Sherbondy had filed for Harvey.

Quotation from an affidavit of Mr. Sherbondy:

".....The said Jacob Y. was in Camp at Uniontown... at which place was located Camp Fayette, the rendezvous of said reg't and just four days before the Reg't marched to the front. This Sarah Floyd [other papers state her name as Miller - though a woman by the name of Floyd did witness some of her papers] was a reputed whore, taking all the circumstances. I am satisfied, that YOUNKIN was drunk when he married this Sarah Floyd, who was well known as a whore, and that he did not care, as he would not then be detected as the Reg't was then under marching orders. The witnesses who testified that he left no child surviving him could only have known him while in camp at Uniontown, as he lived in what is known as the Mountain, and was probably never in Uniontown twice in his life before he went there in Co. B. " given 3 Dec 1867

Quotation from an affidavit of the Pension agent -14 Mar 1864:

" It is alleged by responsible & respectable men viz Jno Collins & G.W.K. Minor, atty's at law in Uniontown, Fayette Co., Pa. that Sarah YOUNKIN (widow of Jacob YOUNKIN) a Pensioner on the roll at this agency, is not the Lawful widow of said Jacob YOUNKIN: that said Jacob YOUNKIN had a wife living at the time of the marriage with said Sarah (pensioner) that said Sarah is a loose character and was such at the time of the marriage with said Jacob and that said Jacob married her during a drunken spree while at home on furlough, and that after his return to the Army was killed. They have both promised to furnish evidence of these facts to be forwarded to you - Mrs. Younkin applied to me a day or two since for her March payment. I refused to pay it until I wrote to you and received a reply - did I do right?

Younkin - Jacob - John - James - John

Mr. Collins & Minor also informed me that the lawful widow of Jacob Younkin (dec'd) is now living in Somerset Co., Pa.

Please inform me in regard to this matter, also whether I have authority to refuse payment upon such information until evidence is produced "

This file also contained affidavits from numerous people but some of the interesting names were: John Miner, Justice of the Peace in Fayette Co. & either Frank or Fran. K. YOUNKIN.

Note: I have not figured out who this 'Jacob M. ' belongs to - if you have any ideas please let me know. One clue would be that Catherine YOUNKIN who m. Jacob MINARD lived in Fayette Co. - perhaps he was the son of their daughter, Flora/ Laura MINARD who m. a YOUNKIN ??????

privately through the years and is a noted piano accompanist. She was a kindergarten assistant and served as organist in the Episcopal Church. She is the Coordinator of the Head Start Program in Somerset County and is an active member of the Somerset Music Club, the Soroptimist and Somerset Garden Clubs.

Pauline married Cecil M. Trout, son of Hazel and William N. Trout, in August 1942. Cecil is a Veteran of World War II and is a Retired Civil Service Employee. Their two sons, Dennis Alan and Mark Adrian are graduates of Penn State University and are both employed in the Mid-West. Polly and Cecil live in the Harrisburg area, where Cecil is well known for his garden produce (especially strawberries and sweet corn). Polly is busy baking goodies for a church bazaar or a neighborhood function.

Charlotte, the youngest sister, resides with Marty and Vance at their home on Route 6 Somerset. She is an active member of the Business and Professional Women's Club, a charter member and past president. She is the private secretary for Robert A. Gilmore Enterprises, collects miniatures and other antique pieces and is noted for her gourmet cooking.

There have been many changes in Somerset since we were "little girls" living on West Race Street — the Turnpike bringing perhaps the biggest change of all: a larger growth of population and expansion on all sides of town. There are new streets, new housing developments, new industries and businesses. Tourists who come to visit like what they see and decide to stay because Somerset is a nice place to live. PHILLIPPI-LEHMER

Jorg Frantz Philippippi, later Francis, came to America on ship Phoenix. He took the oath of allegiance in Philadelphia, 9-15-1749. He was a member of Virginia Militia with Washington at Great Meadows, 1753, and a Wagoner with Braddock's Army at Fort Duquesne, 1755. Shot in the leg, he escaped on horseback, rode across the mountains into what is now Somerset County, later returned and took up land along the Casselman River, now Casselman. He and wife Elizabeth are buried in New Centerville. They had 7 children — John, George, Martin, David, Elizabeth, Christian, Catherine. George (1770-1840) married Christine and had eleven children. Eldest son John (1801) married Sarah Weimer (1806) and had 7 children. Daughter Lucy married Jonas Myers, Civil War Vet.

Rachel, married Gerhardt, who died in Andersonville Prison; later Younkens, Hobson, Wilkins. Mahala married Simon Sweitzer, Somerset Distiller. Teeny married Josiah Bitter, Elizabeth married Christian Schrock. Daniel (1825-1886) married Catherine Lehmer (1829-1909), both are buried in old Church of God Cemetery, Kingwood. David founded the town of Casselman; married Esther and later Martha Cupp.

Daniel Philippippi and Catherine Lehmer had 9 children. Derrick married Maggie Patrick; Louise married David Berkey; Aaron; Marsh; Lee; Sarah, married Henry Van Sickle. Both buried in Rockwood Cemetery as is Austin who married Elizabeth Marker. Calvin married Mae Miller. Lillian married Elmer Miller; both buried in New Centerville.

Wilhelm Lehmer and wife Elizabeth of Oberhausen, Germany had a son Wilhelm, later

William (1729-1800) who married Susannah and came to America on ship Edinburgh. He took oath of allegiance 8/13/1750 and lived on Bermudian Creek, York Co. and had 10 children. Third child, Jacob (1758-1836), married Catherine (1764-1835). He served in the Revolutionary Army. Both are buried Lavansville Cemetery near Somerset. They had 8 children. The third child, Henry (1798-1870), married Catherine Younkens (1800-1829), and their fourth child, Catherine, married Daniel Philippippi. Daniel Philippippi was a County Commissioner of Somerset County before 1880. Submitted by Lillian VanSickle Baker

JOHN PHILLIPPI

John Philippippi, descendant of Francis, and his wife, Sarah Weimer, lived on a farm where the town of Casselman is located. They had two sons, David and Daniel, and five daughters, Lucy, Rachel, Mahala, Teeny and Lucy. All lived in and around Somerset County. When the sons inherited the land they laid out the town of Casselman. They gave so many acres to the town for a park. Both sons lived in Casselman until their deaths.

Daniel married Catharine Lehmer, granddaughter of Jacob Lehman, a Revolutionary War veteran. They had eleven children. One descendant, Sarah, married Henry H. VanSickle, Jan. 13, 1885. They lived in the Daniel Philippippi home until the death of Henry, May 24, 1946. Their children were Clyde, Irene, Lillian and Edward. All attended Rockwood High School and went on to higher education. Submitted by Lillian VanSickle Baker

RAY R. PHILLIPPI

Once in awhile a man comes along who has a gleam in his eye and whose personality is radiant, a man everyone likes and is drawn to. Such a man was Ray R. Philippippi.

He completed only eight grades of school, yet his common sense and wisdom reached far beyond that of some people with much higher education.

During his lifetime, Ray tried various occupations, becoming skilled at most. He left home near Scullton at 14 and started washing dishes in Detroit, Michigan. There he was approached about becoming a boxer. Ray was as strong as a bull. Upon returning to Somerset County he dug coal, worked on the railroad, and opened his own mine, Custom Coal.

He married Ethel F. Cullison during the Depression and worked for farmers in return for food until finally getting a job on the WPA building roads.

Ray R. and Ethel Philippippi — 1977

Next Ray learned the stone masonry trade and also started remodeling homes and barns and worked on many homes in this county.

Ray decided to build himself a log home. He had obtained the knowledge to build barns and log houses from the old-time carpenters and was one of the few men of his generation in this area to construct them. He built seven log houses.

Ray converted part of his log cabin house at Bartonvale into a rural grocery store. From this he went to work on heavy construction as a carpenter.

Next Ray tried his hand at selling real estate. He owned and sold 2100 acres in Upper Turkeyfoot and Middlecreek Townships including the land sold to King's Mt. Resort. On these land tracts he discovered quartz, slate, and with a geiger counter, uranium! He also constructed cabins on these lots.

In 1964 Ray suffered a heart attack. I went to electronics school and returned with a transistor radio, CB, which I had repaired. Ray became excited about it and about repair-work.

His interest aroused, an electronics repair shop was begun on his porch. My brothers, Junior and Jim, became involved and in 1971, a repair shop was erected under Ray's supervision. This shop, Philippippi's Electronics of Trent, grew from a repair shop into a successful retail electronics business, also selling furniture and carpet.

In 1972, Ray suggested that I search his ancestry and write a genealogy, for he wanted to see his life story in print. Now he will not have that satisfaction, for with his death, in 1976, came the break up of the business. Junior and Ethel now are operating Laurel Hill Stereo.

There would be a few people in Somerset County who have not heard of Ray R. Philippippi, but they would be few. We miss the twinkle in his eyes and his laughter.

He lived through the days of the horse and carriage, the cutting of the virgin forests, the coming of the railroads and electricity, to the space age with men walking on the moon and sky labs orbiting Mars. George and Linda Philippippi

Relationship of Submitter to Husband _____ Wife _____

Dear Donna -
am returning a few genealogy family group sheets. Sorry, I don't have much to add.

Yes, we are related thru RHOADS;
George Sr is our common ancestor.

Yes, I have a copy of Daniel Younkin from the History of Bedford and Somerset County.

There are a couple of sisters doing WEIMER research (Ardyth Weimer, 1205 Hutton Rd, Oakmont, PA 15139)
I have been contacted.

I'm not sure my Charles Younkin is of the John M. (Michael) line for 2 reasons:

- 1) death certificate lists JACOB as father
- 2) 1880 Census shows Jonathon Younkin living w/ Charles & Sarah - but HIS father was born in VA

I will write to Mr. Minard for more on the John M line.

Thanks for sending out the newsletter. Everyone loves it!

Donna

Samuel and Rosanna (Judy) Walter, of Garrett, Pennsylvania. Of this marriage were born four children: Clinton, Blanche, Leola and Leona. The family residence is in Berlin.

DANIEL YOUNKIN.

Daniel Younk, a representative citizen of Rockwood, was born April 1, 1857, in Upper Turkeyfoot township, Somerset county, Pennsylvania. His parents were John M. and Laura (Miner) Younk, whose children were: Mary, Catherine, deceased; William S., Jacob, Millie, Charles, Josiah, Daniel, Josephine, and David, deceased. John M. Younk (father) was born in Lower Turkeyfoot township, Somerset county, Pennsylvania, was a farmer by occupation, and his remains were interred at Kingwood, Somerset county. His ancestors were natives of Germany.

At the age of fourteen years, after completing a common school education, Daniel Younk secured employment with the Baltimore & Ohio railroad and continued the same for a period of two years. He then removed to Mount Pleasant, Westmoreland county, where for fourteen years he was engaged in making boats, and then returned to Somerset county, locating in Rockwood. The first year he worked for a Mr. Wolf, and since then has been employed as laborer on the tracks of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad. He is a Republican in politics.

In 1878 Mr. Younk married Elmira Zimmerman, born in New Salem, Ohio, December 19, 1853, and their children are as follows: Catherine, deceased; Gertrude married John Weaver; Mary E., deceased; John W. E., Malena, Lulu Malinda, deceased; Georgia M. Mrs. Younk is a daughter of William and Mary (Yates) Zimmerman, whose children were: John E., Amanda, Elmira (Mrs. Daniel Younk), Jennie, Emma, Anna, Catherine, Barbara, Sadie, William, deceased; and Mary E., deceased. William Zimmerman, a descendant of a German ancestry, was born in Fayette county, Pennsylvania, and throughout his active career gave his time and attention to farming. Mr. Younk and his family are highly respected in the community in which they reside.

CHARLES H. WALTER.

Charles H. Walter, a telegraph operator at Rockwood, Somerset county, Pennsylvania, is a native of the county in which he now resides, born December 9, 1874, in Meyersdale. His parents—Cyrus S. and Clara (Boyer) Walter—were born in Somerset county, Pennsylvania, 1848, and December 2, 1848, respectively. The former named was a farmer by occupation, and the latter was a daughter of Samuel Walters and Dinah Boyer.

Their family consisted of four children: Winfield, Charles, Franklin W., and Mary, deceased.

Charles H. Walter attended the common schools of Meyersdale after which he learned stenography and telegraphy. He then removed to Ohio railroad at Keystone, after which he took business. After years he sold out and worked as stenographer of residence to Rockwood, where he operated a telegraph office and progressive, and had tend toward the entry.

On May 23, 1900, Mr. Walter married Minnie E. Griffith born June 16, 1878, in Meyersdale, Somerset county, Pennsylvania, daughter of Charles S. and Anna (Fike) Griffith, a granddaughter of Daniel and Susan (Supler) Griffith, whose ancestors were natives of Wales. Charles S. Griffith was born Somerset county, 1840, died in 1894; he was a blacksmith trade, and was also a dealer in wagons and all kinds of vehicle. His wife, Anna (Fike) Griffith, was born in Somerset county, Pennsylvania, 1834. Mr. Walter is a descendant of a German ancestry.

ISAAC G. JONES.

The ancestors of Isaac G. Jones, of Somerset, were among those Welsh immigrants who have done so much toward building up certain regions of Pennsylvania. Isaac Jones came from Wales in 1825 and settled in Schuylkill county, afterward moving to Lancaster Gap. His wife was Belsie Thomas, and they were the parents of a son, Isaac G., of whom later. While Mr. Jones was working at Lancaster Gap the first engine made on the first trip in Pennsylvania, running from Philadelphia to the end of the railroad, which was at Lancaster Gap. It was a single cylinder engine and at every stopping-place was set in motion by two crowbars.

Isaac G. Jones, son of Isaac and Belsie (Thomas) Jones, was born July 4, 1832, in Pottsville, Schuylkill county, after

Hans Firestone Came to America in 1753

By Eber Cockley

JOHN FIRESTONE found in 1850 Census Somerset Co Penn age 81 born Va

Going back five centuries, George Ely Russell,* Bowie, Md., covers the research on the Firestone Family, based upon original documentary sources and family records. Nicholas, Johann and Theobald came from the Bregenz Forest, Province of Vorarlberg, Austria and settled in the fifteenth century, at Berg, a farm village forty miles northwest of Strasbourg. They were German in customs, language and religion but subject to jurisdiction of 33 France. . . . Nicholas Firestone (HANS NICHOLAS FEUERSTEIN) married 10 Apr 1733 CATHARINA NUNNEMACHER at the Berg Lutheran church, in which register also recorded are birth dates of most of their children. Because of the loss by fire in 1720 of the Berg Lutheran church birth and baptismal registers of prior dates it was necessary to start this story where records are extant. Hence the gap between fifteenth and eighteenth centuries noted.

HANS NICHOLAS FIRESTONE

HANS NICHOLAS FIRESTONE born Berg, Alsace, 25 Mar 1712, was a carpenter and farmer; contracted his services as farm laborer in exchange for ship passage to America, arrival Philadelphia on ship "Peggy" 24 Sep 1753; upon expiration of indenture period in Lancaster County Pennsylvania settled on farm of his own in Peters township Franklin County (then in Cumberland County) located on the banks of Conococheague Creek; died 1763; wife CATHERINE NUNNEMACHER; their children—

Hinkle Reunion

By Robert C. Hinkle, Jr.

In 1717 Rev. Anthony Henckel and family stepped onto American soil at Philadelphia. They took up pioneer residence a few miles away, and began to help build the nation, and establish the family that we are so proud of today.

In celebration of this 250th anniversary, the 1967 family reunion will be held at Ursinus College, Collegeville, Penn., June 17 and 18. Registration 8:00 p.m. Saturday. Sunday program business session 11:00 a.m. Luncheon 12:00 noon, Memorial Service 2:30 p.m. St. Michael's church, Germantown, where Rev. Henckel served as first pastor, and is buried.

Reservations for luncheon and lodging are being received by the Secretary of the Family Association, Mrs. John R. Ford, 1504 Ivanhoe Avenue, Baltimore, Md., 21228.

Sound Mind and Memory do make and publish this my last will and Testament: First I direct that my body be decently interred and my funeral be conducted in a manner corresponding to my situation in life - And as to such worldly Estate as it hath pleased God to intrust me with - I dispose of the Same as follows - First I direct that all my debts and funeral Expenses be paid as soon as possible after my decease - out of the first money that shall come into the hands of my Executors from any portion of my Estate also I direct that a fair valuation or appraisement be made by three Judicious neighbours of all my household furniture and all other personal property I be possessed of - and a copy of such appraisement be given to my Executors and that the Same be Sold by them and the proceeds thereof to be divided as I hereinafter direct - And further - I being at this time in possession of promissory notes payable by my Son George Hirstone to me amounting in all to seven hundred dollars Each note calling for fifty dollars and payable as follows viz. the first one payable on the first day of April A.D. 1853 and then fifty dollars yearly thereafter on the first day of April until the whole seven hundred dollars be paid up - And I also hold obligations against other persons at this time for various amounts - Now I direct that the aforesaid moneys if previously paid and in my possession at the time of my death or if not paid at that time and still due or coming due to me as well as all other money or property belonging to me or in my possession at my decease shall Equally divided to and amongst my following named Children and Grand Child Share and Share alike - That is to say Joseph Hirstone Jacob Hirstone John Hirstone and George Hirstone Mary Hirstone intermarried with Leonard May Elisabeth Hirstone intermarried with Byard Miller Margaret Hirstone intermarried with David Leightner and my Grand Son William Yountkin who was a Son of my Daughter Catharine Deceased formerly intermarried with William Yountkin the aforesaid William Yountkin my grand Son is to have and inherit one Eighth Share of the above bequeathed property and money - Or in other words what would have been his mother's Share if she were now living - And it is further my will that my Grand Children of my Son Michael Hirstone And also my Grand Son John Yountkin who was a Son of my Daughter

I believe that John X (wife Eliza Rose) did sign the deed. This was prior to his marriage. Don't know why he needed a guardian at this age. John X married on August 16, 1852 by Jacob Rush according to his "person file" (Civil War) he was 73 years of age when he died Jan 15, 1901
He would have been about 23 when he signed the deed. (over)

DEED
John Yunkew et al
To Solomon Boldow

This Indenture made the 9th day of March in the Year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty one Between John M. Yunkew & Lowry his wife George Kingston & Catharine his wife Rebecca Yunkew Guardian of W^m Yunkew & John H. Yunkew of Upper Lower Turkey fort Townships Somerset County State of Pennsylvania of the first part & Solomon Boldow of Lower Turkeyfort Township State of Maryland of the second part Witnesseth that the said party of the first part for and in Consideration of the sum of Six Hundred Dollars lawful money of the United States unto them well and truly paid by the said Solomon Boldow of the second part at or before the sealing & delivery of these presents the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged, grant bargain sold alien convey ed conveyed and Confirmed and by these presents do grant bargain sell alien release convey and Confirm unto the said party of the second part his heirs and assigns All the following described tract of land situate in Turkeyfort Township Somerset County Pa which said Tract was surveyed in pursuance of a warrant dated the sixth day of March 1843 granted to Jacob Yunkew (of John) beginning at a stone thence by Land of Michay Rowe North Sixteen and a half degrees west forty five perches to a post North four & one half degrees west forty perches to a red oak thence by land of John Yunkew's heirs North forty six degrees East fifty one perches to a sugar North thirty one & one fourth degrees East fifty perches to a stone North seventy nine degrees East thirty four perches to a stone North sixty six degrees East seventy perches to a post in run South twenty three degrees East eighteen perches to a rock thence by land of Jacob Kautzell South seventeen degrees East twenty nine perches to a stone South twenty & one half degrees East one hundred and eight perches to a hickory grub thence by vacant land South forty four degrees west twenty four perches to a chestnut South twenty three degrees west ninety nine perches to a stone

You will note William did not sign the deed. He was probably still under age. The only explanation for the transaction of Herman as these two's guardian was the fact that he was overruling their interest in the estate, maybe being named prior to John's reaching legal age.

is this Hazel the me on the attached sheet?

I don't understand this one at all - all the last names are different??

It's possible but don't know for sure.
The problem is her (Hazel) mother's obituary gives her last name as Kelley. Could be Hazel was twice married.

JOSEPH D. YOUNKIN
ANDREW YOUNKIN
BOTH MARRIED HER

MRS. P. A. YOUNKIN

CONFLUENCE, Pa., Nov. 17, 1937.—Mrs. P. A. Younklin, age 79 years, widow of Jos. D. Younklin, and Andrew Younklin, died at the home of Jos. B. Younklin, Nov. 17, 1937. Other surviving children are D. G. Younklin, of Mesa, Ariz., Mrs. Chas. Shannon of Connellsville, Pa. and Mrs. Edna Arndt of Chicago, Ill. Surviving also are eight grandchildren, funeral from the home of her son, Jas. B. Younklin, burial in the Imel cemetery, Sunday, Nov. 21, 1937.

OSCAR E. YOUNKIN

After an illness of over two years' duration, Oscar Emerson Younklin, a life-long resident of Confluence, died at his home Wednesday morning, Sept. 8th.

Mr. Younklin was married 42 years to Miss Ellen Nicklow, and to this union were born three children—one son and two daughters, all of whom survive him. They are: Mrs. A. C. Leer, Somerset; Mrs. James Reed, Confluence and Wilbert Younklin of Pittsburgh.

Funeral services were held at his late home, Rev. F. M. Kees, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church of which Mr. Younklin was a member, officiating.

Mr. Younklin had been a member of the Confluence Lodge of Odd Fellows for many years, and his fellow lodge members attended the funeral services in a body, using their ritual at the grave. Burial was in the Kingwood cemetery.

CONFLUENCE BOY DIES OF INJURIES IN AUTO MISHAP

CONFLUENCE, Feb. 23.—Eugene Younklin, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Younklin of Bobtown, Greene county, who was injured last Saturday night in an automobile accident, died last night at Frantz Hospital. He lived with his grandmother here.

WOMAN IS FOUND DEAD IN HOME AT CRESSON

CRESSON, July 31.—Going to the home of Mrs. Catherine (Younkens) Eger at 608 Keystone avenue this morning about 9:30 o'clock for the purpose of making a purchase of some furniture Mrs. Eger had to sell, James Lotito of Lilly found the woman dead at the foot of the stairs in the home.

Getting no response to a knock, he went to a window and looked in and saw the form of the woman on the floor. He notified Officer P. P. Parish, who went to the home and forced an entrance. Coroner Cyrus W. Davis was notified and ordered the body removed to the Norman D. Camber funeral home and he will conduct an investigation later.

Mrs. Eger evidently fell down the stairs some time during the night. Her husband, Julius Eger, died about five years ago. She was aged about 55 years and is survived by her mother, Mrs. Henry Younkens of Homestead, and two sons and one daughter Leo Eger and Rose Eger, both residing in Pittsburgh, and Paul, residing in Chicago.

NANCY Y. BARNETT

Cameron, W. Va. Dec. 30, 1936.

Mrs. Nancy Younklin Barnett, 85, one of Cameron's most prominent and highly esteemed women, passed on at seven o'clock yesterday morning at her home on Maple avenue following a lengthy illness.

Mrs. Barnett was born in Greene county, Pa. For the past fifty years she has been a resident of this city. She was a lifelong member of the Presbyterian church.

Mrs. Barnett was the widow of the late Jesse L. Barnett, who served in the Civil War as captain of Company 8, 7th West Virginia Infantry.

She is survived by one son, John Barnett, of Sommerfield, Ohio six daughters, Mrs. Charles McCulloch, Mrs. Margaret Hughes and Mrs. Daisy Bowers of this city, Mrs. Maude Carney of Hundred, Mrs. Ella Bushager of Sinton, Texas and Mrs. Orpha Mahan of Hannibal, Mo., and several grandchildren and great grandchildren.

Funeral services will be conducted from the home late Saturday afternoon. Interment will be made in the Cameron cemetery.

DAN YOUNKIN'S SISTER DIES

Mrs. Sylvia Ellen Younklin-Sanders died Saturday at the home of a daughter, Mrs. Ben Heer, near Riley, at the age of 71 years; after a long illness. She is survived by four children: Mrs. Nora Martin and Albert Mellinger of Milford, Mrs. Henry Heer of near Ogden and Mrs. Ben Heer; two brothers: Dan Younklin here and James Younklin of Junction City; a sister, Mrs. J. J. (Marietta) Reed of Pueblo, Colorado, and six grandchildren.

Sylvia Ellen Younklin was born Sept. 13, 1865. When a small girl she moved with her parents to a farm east of Milford, where she grew to womanhood. She was married Nov. 20, 1880 to Isaac Sanders. They settled on a farm east of Milford.

Seven children were born to this union, three, Milton, Annie and Minnie precede her in death. Her husband died Oct. 17, 1928.

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon from the Milford Congregational church, with Rev. Jack Oliver officiating. Burial was in Branscomb cemetery. Several relatives of this community were in attendance.

CHARLOTTE F. YOUNKIN WEDS DANIEL SMITH, JR.

Saturday evening at 7 o'clock at the parsonage of the Methodist Episcopal Church at Confluence, Miss Charlotte Florence Younklin of Indian Head became the bride of Daniel Smith, Jr., of Confluence. Rev. F. M. Kees, pastor, performed the ceremony in the presence of a few guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith have a host of friends.

RUTH YOUNKINS BRIDE OF EDWARD BRIERCHECK AT CHURCH CEREMONY

Charming simplicity marked the wedding of Miss Ruth Yonkins, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Yonkins of Connells-ville, and Edward Briercheck, son of George Briercheck of Scottsdale, which took place Wednesday morn- ing at 9:30 o'clock at St. Rita's Catholic Church, West Side. Rev. Andrew DiSanto, of St. Berna- dine's Catholic Church of Mount Pleasant, officiated in the absence of the church pastor, Rev. Henry DeVivo.

In claim for pension, No. 557829, of Norman D. Knight of Co. "D" 4th Regiment of West Va. Vols.

Personally came before me, a born. Plur Clerk in and for said county and state. Wm. Goukins aged 50 years, a resident of Alexander T. C. county of Altura state of Ohio and Wm. Goukins, aged 50 years, a resident of county of Altura, state of Ohio, who being by me duly sworn, according to law, say: I was well and personally acquainted with Norman D. Knight the Claimant herein named before the breaking out of the war of 1861 and believed him to be perfectly sound and in good health at the time he enlisted as a Soldier in the war, in June 1861. Seen him in April in 1864 while he was home on furlough he was then afflicted with Rheumatism also indigestion he continued lame most of the time while at home about 30 days. Seen him soon after being discharged in July 1865 he was then in general bad health not able to perform farm labor he being a farmer he was quite lame most of the time and spit up nearly every thing he ate complained of fluttering and thumping in left side near the heart causing dizziness. In 1866 about Oct 1st Claimant and I moved to Ill. where Claimant's health some what improved from about November 1st 1866 to about November 1st 1867 Claimant's condition was so that he was able to perform the duties of a farmer about 2/3 of the time. About the 1st of November 1867 I moved from Illinois back to Ohio from which time I have no further knowledge of Claimant's condition.

I know these facts for being with and working with Claimant living in the same House part of the time while in Illinois.

I am not concerned in this case.
Not in any way concerned in this case.

DOROTHY YOUNKIN

Dorothy Younk, daughter of Samuel and Rebecca Thrush, was born in Pickaway County, June 6, 1864, and departed this life May 16, 1939, at her late home in South Bloomfield, aged 74 years, 11 months and 10 days.

On September 25, 1884, she was united in marriage to Horton H. Younk. To this union were born eight children—four sons and four daughters, the youngest daughter, Bernice, having preceded her mother in death about fifteen years ago.

The living children are Earl and Everett, of Columbus; Fred and Howard, of Ashville; Mrs. Nora Crable, Mrs. Edith Mithoff, of Columbus, and Mrs. Mildred Hoover, of Lockbourne.

Shortly after her marriage she united with the M. E. Church of Pherson, Ohio. In later years her membership was removed to the Renick M. E. Church, finally transferring to the Scioto Chapel U. B. Church of Rebtown, Ohio, of which she was a member at the time of her death.

When health permitted, she loved to attend the services of this little chapel, but in her declining years she gained much spiritual strength and comfort listening to the beloved hymns and sermons on the radio by one of her former pastors, Rev. D. S. Mills, and wife.

Her life was centered upon her home and children, never too busy to lend a helping hand to one in need.

To her faithful companion of over 54 years, as well as to others, she stated that her work on earth was finished and she was ready and willing to go. She was an indulgent and helpful wife and mother and was highly esteemed by her friends and neighbors.

She leaves to mourn their loss, her devoted husband, four sons and three daughters, 25 grandchildren, six great-grandchildren, many nieces and nephews and a host of friends. She will be sadly missed by all but we feel that our loss is her gain, for she has gone up higher where pain and sorrow are no more.

"Now the busy hands are folded.

And her task on earth is done.
She has gone to claim his promise,
And in Heaven a crown has won."

CARD OF THANKS

The family wishes to thank all who in any way assisted in the death of wife and mother; Mr. Finch for his efficient service; Rev. Smith and Rev. Wright for their consoling words; Rev. Mills for the beautiful hymns, and neighbors, relatives and friends for the beautiful floral offerings.

H. H. YOUNKIN.

Mildred Ward Is Recent Bride of Delano Younkin

ASHVILLE, O.—Miss Mildred K. Ward, daughter of Mrs. Lawrence Ward, of Madison Township, and Delano D. Younkin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Younkin, of Ashville, were united in marriage at 8:30 o'clock, Saturday evening, September 23, in the home of the bride's mother.

The Rev. E. H. E. Winterhoff, of the St. Paul Lutheran Church, read the single ring ceremony before an improvised altar of palms, ferns, white chrysanthemums and blue asters. The only light in the room was the glow of two seven-branch candelabras.

To the strains of Lohengrin's Wedding March, played by Mrs. Cecil Ward, the bride, gowned in delicate pink organza, entered the room carrying a white prayer book with ribbon sprays of pink rose buds and lilies of the valley, and wearing a gardenia in her hair.

Members of the immediate families and few close friends who were present for the ceremony, were entertained at an informal reception and buffet supper following the wedding.

Hans Nicholas Firestone, Sr. born 25 March, 1712 at Berg, Alsace, died 1763. Married 10 April 1733 Catharina Nunnemacher at Berg Lutheran Church. They had 13 children, all born in Alsace. This family arrived in Philadelphia on the ship, "Peggy" 24 September, 1753. Father and sons were indentured to farmers in Lancaster County, Pa. in exchange for their ship passage cost. The family later located in Peters Twp., Cumberland County, Pa. after serving their indenture time.

II - Johann Nicholas Firestone, Jr. born in Alsace 1734; was a veteran of the Revolutionary War of Cumberland County. Married about 1763 Eva Catharina Schwab. They had 8 children. It is thought most of the children were born in Pennsylvania but many think he went to Virginia, then back to Pennsylvania, than again to Virginia where he died in 1807 at Mill Creek.

III - John Firestone born possibly in Virginia about 1769 married Margaret Thrasher of Amsterdam, Virginia. It is believed he settled in the Ursina area of Turkeyfoot Township about 1802. He died in 1852, his wife dying prior to 1850.

Above information from the files of the 'Somerset Historical Society' compiled by the late Eber Cockley. The following is by different researchers that have submitted information.

Pin 2625
Children of John and Margaret Thrasher Firestone :-

John (ca 1795), married Lydia ? : lived in Bullskin Twp. in 1850. States he was born in Virginia. He died prior to 1860. Lydia was the head of household in both 1860 and 1870. Had two sons, Hawkins and Asa to serve in the Civil War. Youngest son, George E. married Helen Barbara Minerd. Also had sons, Stoddard and Levi.

* Joseph (ca 1796), married Catherine Younkin. First found in Bullskin Township as early as the 1830 census. This family was on the 1850 census. No trace can be found of any of them after 1852. Joseph was apparently a widower as early as the 1840 census.

Mary (ca 1797), married Leonard May; lived in Connellsville Twp. in 1850.

Jacob (ca 1800) married Mary ? : lived in Turkeyfoot Township. See enclosed pension leaflet. He died 1876.

Michael (ca 1805) married Elizabeth Ansell. He died 1857. She lived in Springfield Twp., Fayette County until her death in 1885. They had two sons, John and Martin to die in the Civil War. Elizabeth received a pension on the record of John. Children listed in her will - Vol. 6, page 126, 1885 names these children - Michael, Emanuel, Jeremiah, Lewis, Hannah, Rachael and Catherine.

Elizabeth (?) married Bayard Miller. Nothing known. Buried in Crossroads Cemetery. Died when she was 72 years of age.

Margaret (?) married David Leighliter. Nothing known.

George (ca. 1812) married Catherine Younkin of Jacob (wife, Eleanor) of John. George died in 1884, buried in a Younkin Cemetery.

children :- Michael (March 2, 1834-July 8, 1919) married Lavina Nicola. (Death certificate info.); Ellen (1840); Simon (1843); Harriet (1846) married James Burkholder; Jacob Ross (1849); Norman (1855). Simon died while serving in the Civil War.

719 John Wesley Burkholder.

John Wesley Burkholder, one of the best known and most highly respected farmers and residents of Lower Turkeyfoot township, died at his home at Nicolay on January 22, aged 64 years. He had been sick for about three years from a complication of diseases that ultimately paralyzed his whole system rendering him helpless for over a year. He was born in Lower Turkeyfoot township in 1850 and spent his whole life in farming and stock raising at which occupations he was very successful. He was married twice, his first wife being Mrs. Jane Ross and his last wife Miss Harriet Firestone.

He was the father of ten children, six by the first wife and four by the last wife, all of whom survive him, these being Mrs. Robert Gove, Everson, Pa.; C. C. Burkholder, Hazelwood, Pa.; Charles, of Clay Run, Pa.; James of Everson; Harry of Springfield township; Mrs. Frank Younkin, Upper Turkeyfoot township—children by the first wife—Daniel, Russell, Rebecca and Ralph—children by the second wife, all of whom reside at home. He is survived by one brother, William Burkholder of Florida, and two sisters, Mrs. J. N. Tannehill and Mrs. P. A. Younkin, of Lower Turkeyfoot township. He is also survived by 15 grand children. He was a member of the Methodist Episcopal church and a man of the highest character, a devoted husband and father, a true friend and one respected in every walk in life. The funeral took place on Sunday afternoon, January 24, from the house, Rev. L. P. LePage officiating. Interment in the Emil cemetery, Clay Run.

Deaths

FIRESTONE

Paul L. Firestone, 62, of 4 Green Street, Southwicks Greensburg, died Sunday, July 9, 1978 in the Westmoreland Hospital, Greensburg. Born Sept. 10, 1915 in Somers County, a son of the late George Ross and Emma Firestone. He was a retired employee of the Robertshaw Company at New Stanton with 36 years of service; life member of the Church of the Brethren; and was a member of the Thilathia Sunday School Class. Preceded in death by daughter, Sally Kay Firestone, 1967, and two brothers: Donald and Merle Firestone, both in 1977, and by two half-brothers: Oscar and Orville Firestone. Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Sara (Fletcher) Firestone, also two sons, Terry T. of Pen Hills, and William R. of Baldwin Borough in Pittsburgh; also one grandson, Gregor K.; and three brothers: Hillar Firestone of Berlin; Le Firestone of Youngwood; an Lloyd Firestone of Somerset and four sisters: Mrs. Emma (Gertrude) Bittner of Rockwood; Mrs. George (Dorothy) Gardner of Somerset RD 3 and Mrs. Kenneth (Golds Mayne) Walthour and Mrs. William (Gayla) Boley, both of Greensburg. Friends were received at the Leo M. Bach Funeral Home, 516 Stanton Street, Greensburg on Monday; and will again be received Tuesday from 3-5 and 7-9 p.m. Additional viewing will be held Wednesday from 10-11 a.m. at the Church of the Brethren, Stanton and Mace Streets, Greensburg. Funeral service will be held Wednesday at 1 a.m. at the church with the Rev. James V. D'Amico officiating. Interment will follow at the St. Clair Cemetery, Greensburg.

Marlyn Hartzell Dalsimer

Dear Donna,

I was very surprised and pleased to receive your letter and package of materials on Henry and Herman (Harmon) Younkin estates, photos, etc. I really hadn't expected to hear from you until after the holidays, as I know you are busy. Aren't we all??!! Thank you for taking the time to send the stuff so promptly.

Yes, it was your item in the YFNB that got me going on Windolyn Lincoln Stevens. I got her address by telephoning the national DAR, which gave me the address of the chapter's president in Decaturville, Ala. I wrote to the president and she replied with Windolyn's address and so that's how I located her. Poor woman, I just deluged her with correspondence. As you can tell from her replies to my many questions, she did her best to respond and was nice about it. But she is not actively doing genealogy, and in fact, her mother did the research to qualify her for DAR membership. I was hoping that she could verify that my George Hartzell was her grandmother's [Polly Hartzell] brother, but of course, that would be too simple!! Anyway, I do think this is my family, but now have to prove it.

Thanks for sending me the address of Barbara Younkin Jump Park. I had read her charming article about visiting you, but had no idea she had Hartzell lineage. I'll write to her soon.

Among the many materials I sent to you, was a little section marked off in red ink, outlining the many Hartzell/Younkin marriages we know of so far. Could you put these in a little article in the YFNB? I'm hoping to shake some Hartzells out of the trees, who may be able to help me with my genealogy. I realize that what I sent you is the barest outline, but I don't have time to do anything more polished right now.

Love, Cousin Marlyn

P.S. Please find enclosed a packet of materials which give the lineage of another Younkin/Hartzell descendant. Just for your file & computer lineage.

Dear cousin Marlyn,

I think you've got something here. I stopped in the Somerset library several years ago on a quick trip, but couldn't put much together. Look at Mary Hartzell Holiday's death certificate and you'll see what I mean. Most of the early references I see say "Holiday". I think Dr. Holliday spelled her name that way out of habit. Here are copies of what few documents I got from Robert Foster Shultz (ph. 216-584-2451), Route 224, Deerfield OH 44411. How many "other" Hartzell genealogists ARE there, by the way. Pennsylvania is a notoriously difficult state for early research. Both of us have a little more on the Foster and Shultz lines, but not as much as on my mother's side in Western West Virginia, where there is lots more to work from.

I also have what probably is an 1860 census record from Aleppo Twp. Greene Co. It's so bad and dark that I will make an attempt to paraphrase it. (A lot of the first run of microfilm was 2 pages per frame. The later ones were made as 1 page per frame, which takes twice as many rolls, but improves the quality.)

WV] Edna Elizabeth Cokeley b. 9 May 1919 at Harrisville, Ritchie Co. WV (dau. of Wilbur Henry Cokeley and his first wife Martha Sinnett Johnson)

Then me. John Cokeley Foster b. 23 Sep 1947 at Parkersburg, Wood Co. WV m. 27 Jun 1987 Columbus, Franklin Co, OH Katherine Lorain Hinkle, widow of Leonard Franklin Temple. I have one stepdau., age 21, whom we hope will be going away SOON.

I have only one sister, Sara Martha Foster, who married Danny [sic] Neal Hylbert and have one dau. Micalyn Ann Hylbert. Sara's not interested in this family stuff. She and my mother went together and bought a house in outlying Parkersburg (RR 9 Box 117).

I worked at several computer related jobs in Columbus Ohio and got transferred to Cincinnati and laid off. I have been working in Austin, TX (great weather) for two years and got laid off in May. (arrrrgh---time to vote for some challengers) I have enough friends and electronic networks here that I'm going to try to stick it out here. Yes, I read some of the genealogy related echos on Fidonet electronic bulletin boards, if you have access to some. I'm being brief today and didn't list the families above. We're flying out of here tomorrow (on what used to be a vacation) to WV to visit folks. I want to close so I can get this response out. There was supposed to be a Foster/Shultz/Penman family reunion this weekend, but it got cancelled due to lack of interest. I was -- THE-- Foster at the last one. I thought I'd better go, or they'd change the name. I have nonrefundable tickets....some of the Cokeleys are getting together Sunday, so we will have a different family reunion. We have a Precancel Stamp convention in St. Louis in August. Katie is saving produce seals (from Bananas, apples, mangos....yeah....those things) One of the guys at the P.S.S. convention has over 1500 different produce seals. My wifes brother in law is bringing his produce seals to St. Louis also and we will have a small family reunion there along with the stamp convention. Send some if you find any that are interesting....they seem to be very regional)

I am interested in a record of the descendants of your George Hartzell.

Sincerely,

John C. Foster

Dear Marlyn,

busy as usual.....job hunting.....still trying to find a location for the Texas Precancel Stamp convention in August, 1994 (I enclosed a few...what you sent were uncanceled) San Antonio has a Church of God convention the 1st and 2nd week of Aug. that year that is using 40,000 hotel rooms, so if they want it there, it may be the third week. Hotel exhibition space in Austin is outrageous due to lack of competition. The August, 1993 convention is already set for the 1st week of August in Orlando, FL. Unless economics improves, a special reunion trip in 1993 will probably be out of the question for me. Texas is too far away from ANYTHING, except by air.

There was no Foster/Shultz reunion. No interest was expressed, so we flew to WV anyway on our prepaid tickets. There was a thought to have a smaller reunion in Pittsburgh, but that fell through also. A Cokeley from the west coast was in town, so we had a "reunion" on that side in Parkersburg. A spinster Cokeley aunt died that week, so we had ANOTHER funeral/reunion that week. Maybe, since there is a relationship, I might suggest that the Foster/Shultz side combine with the Younkens in Somerset. I have to make my plans farther out than others seem to be doing/not doing.

* Emma J. Holiday obituary on file at Reynoldsburg [should be Reynoldsville, Jefferson Co. PA] "Star"

I will enclose what fits on your family sheets. I prefer the Everton sheets like the ones in the book, because they give space for spouses of children without starting more sheets. Oh well. The Shultz/Penman side was very prolific. I have some more stuff to factor in from that side, but a lot of it is unverified. Robert Foster Shultz gathered a lot of information, but I see a mistake or three. I am tired of searching for computer genealogy programs that do not do what I want. I need to continue a belated project in WordPerfect5.1, which will do most of what I want. Foxbase database is another powerful product that I may pursue. I have DbaseIV here, but found it to be unfriendly.

Actually, there may be some near-related stuff in your interesting compilation. I find the BRAKE and HENRY family popping up in Fayette Co, PA, and may find a relation or two there [no direct line, just cousins, but that's what keeps it fresh.]

I need to write up some more, as usual. I got a new computer hard drive last week, but it is growling sporadically, and my source will swap it out next week for another one.....always something to delay matters.

Sincerely,

John C. Foster

Today in History

By The Associated Press

Today is Friday, Feb. 23, the 54th day of 1996. There are 312 days left in the year.

Today's Highlight in History:

On Feb. 23, 1945, during World War II, U.S. Marines on Iwo Jima captured Mount Suribachi, and raised the American flag. A larger flag was then brought in to replace the first; the second flag-raising was captured in the famous picture taken by Associated Press photographer Joe Rosenthal.

On this date:

In 1685, composer George Frideric Handel was born in Germany.

In 1822, Boston was granted a charter to incorporate as a city.

In 1836, the siege of the Alamo began in San Antonio, Texas.

In 1847, U.S. troops under General Zachary Taylor defeated Mexican General Santa Anna at the Battle of Buena Vista in Mexico.

In 1848, the sixth president of the United States, John Quincy Adams, died of a stroke at age 80.

In 1861, President-elect Abraham Lincoln arrived secretly in Washington to take office, an assassination plot having been foiled in Baltimore.

In 1870, Mississippi was readmitted to the Union.

In 1905, the Rotary Club was founded.

In 1927, President Coolidge signed a bill creating the Federal LEETONIA — Ethel H. Murphy, 97, of 39266 Crestview Road, died at 4:45 p.m. Friday at the home of her daughter in Salem following a long illness.

She was born Oct. 15, 1894 in Marshall County, W. Va., the daughter of the late James V. and Matilda McGary Hartzell, and had lived in the area since 1914, coming from West Virginia.

She had been a private duty practical nurse for many years.

She is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Phemie Crumbaker of Salem, Mrs. Jessie Metz of Leetonia and Mrs. Annabelle Brain of Phoenix; three sisters, Mrs. Lucy Stinard of Smithfield, Mrs. Gladys Hennebert of Brilliant, and Mrs. Martha Langford of Weirton, W. Va.

three brothers, Raymond V. Hartzell of Steubenville, Lawrence L. Hartzell of Adena, and Roland S. Hartzell of Gibsonia, Pa.; 16 grandchildren, 44 great-grandchildren, and 11 great-great-grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by a daughter, Mrs. Agnes Gorman Toot in 1969, and two sons, James Murphy in 1985 and George Murphy in 1944.

Services will be conducted at 1:30 p.m. Monday at the Woods-Rettig Funeral Home with Mr. Pendle Roth officiating.

Burial will be in Washingtonville Cemetery.

Calling hours are 7-9 p.m. Sunday.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Salem Visiting Nurses Association.

WHO IS TH AND WHY ARE WE EATIN

by R. Schuler

[This is the first of a three part series on firm history, researched and written by Bugle Graphics Editor R. Schuler. — Ed.]

When I told someone here at the firm that I was doing research for an article on Moses Hampton, she asked, "Was there really a Moses Hampton?" Well, yes, Virginia, there really was a Moses Hampton, and according to supportable tradition he was the early 19th century founder of the law firm that would eventually become Buchanan Ingersoll Professional Corporation.

At least, that was the considered opinion of the late John G. Buchanan, and there exist some good arguments for the claim. While it is possible to trace certain other local law firms back to Moses (i.e. Thompson Rhodes & Cowie, for one), we have the least questionable pedigree, since most of the name partners (and their progeny) have stuck with our line; just check out Audrey Glickman's famous lineage chart.

So who was this Moses Hampton, and why should anybody want to lay claim to him? By all accounts, he was a self-made man, and a diligent lawyer and public servant — not only the President Judge of the District Court of Allegheny County for 20 years, but also, briefly, a United States Congressman.

Born in exceedingly humble circumstances in Beaver, Pennsylvania, on October 28, 1803, he moved with his parents to Trumbull County, Ohio, at the age of nine.

His father was a blacksmith; and from an early age Moses worked in his father's shop and was instilled with a Calvinistic belief in hard work and pecuniary gain. Eventually, however, he left the family homestead to seek his fortune, journeying on foot from Trumbull County to Washington, Pennsylvania, which in its day was "the fountainhead of learning" for much of the Ohio Valley.

At 23, upon taking his baccalaureate degree from Washington (now Washington and Jefferson) University, Moses was named Principal of the LaFayette Academy in Uniontown. Although he had a profound interest in classical and religious studies, while earning his keep in education he chose to pursue the law.

In 1829, under the tutelage of a local Uniontown lawyer named Austin, Hampton was admitted to the bar.

He moved to Somerset later that year, and began the practice of law in partnership with local Somerset lawyers. He gained enough local notoriety to be appointed Prothonotary of Fayette County by the Governor of Pennsylvania. Supporting his wife Ann and his children in Somerset, however, was difficult for a young lawyer during the Great Depression of 1837. So Moses set his sights on the big city to the West.

Moses Goes Over the Mountain

received at Pittsburgh from the Ohio River alone rose from 22,440 in 1825 to 381,539 in 1848. The city's influence began to extend itself throughout the Mississippi Valley, leading one New Orleans newspaper editor to complain that "Pittsburgh, Pittsburgh, Pittsburgh stared us in the face everywhere we went."

Such an atmosphere proved to be fertile ground for the seasoned young lawyer. One of Hampton's colleagues recalled of the young Hampton that "there was not a man more eloquent, or who was a harder opponent to beat," yet in all the cases that this colleague argued against Hampton, never "a cross or angry word ever passed between them."

His talents in demand, Hampton quickly acquired an extensive and lucrative practice from all quarters, including an occasional criminal defendant. By 1844, Hampton's practice was rewarding enough that he apparently saw no reason to place daily advertisements in the local newspapers, as was the habit of many Pittsburgh lawyers at that time.

Hampton's practice also survived the Great Fire of 1845, which consumed one-third of the entire city. Not all Pittsburgh lawyers were so lucky: the only reported death in the fire was that of Samuel Kingston, a lawyer, who went into his office to recover his files and was overcome by smoke.

If the fire alone were not enough to set back Pittsburgh's fortunes, the Tariff Act of 1846 threatened to erase them entirely. In 1842, the Whigs passed a strict protectionist tariff against foreign goods in order to boost local manufacturing. Pittsburgh was a primary beneficiary of the bill. In 1846, however, steel-eyed Democratic President James K. Polk had set his sights on the Oregon territory, and had bargained away the heavy tariff to settle a border dispute with Great Britain. Thus, the new, weaker tariff, branded the "British tariff," amounted to free trade, and caused local manufacturing to suffer.

It was in this atmosphere that Moses

Hampton was nominated for a seat in the United States House of Representatives in 1846 by a Whig Party coalition of property owners and laborers. The people having spoken, Hampton reluctantly left his practice and stumped the countryside in search of votes.

The election was fought hardest in the press, however. The Whig paper, the Pittsburgh Gazette, traded scandal and innuendo with the Democratic paper, the Pittsburgh Post throughout the campaign.

The Post attacked Hampton from all angles. First, the paper accused Hampton of taking a $500 pay-off from the government in connection with his representation of a postal fraud defendant. It was later shown that Hampton received the money as a fee for assisting in the prosecution of a man being unsuccessfully defended by Wilson McCandless, his opponent.

Next, the paper called Hampton a "Royal Arch Mason," which in those days could spell the end of a political career. Hampton denounced the charge, viewing masonic organizations as "dangerous to our political institutions, inimical to the administration of justice, and opposed in their spirit and tendencies to the mild and benevolent principles of Christianity," according to the Gazette.

Finally, the Post called Hampton "selfish, cunning and mercenary," and an "adventurer...[with a] voracious love of money and an inordinate thirst for office." Seeing, however, that such invective was having no effect on Hampton's unimpeachable integrity, the Post turned to assailing other Whig candidates, and Hampton eventually beat McCandless, 5,467 votes to 4,047.

"Mournful Moses" in Congress

In 1847, Hampton journeyed to Washington to join the 30th Congress, there to find himself the colleague of another pioneering Whig lawyer named Abraham Lincoln.

As "western" Whigs, both Lincoln and Hampton supported a stronger tariff and, despite their dissatisfaction with President Polk's Mexican War, favored territorial expansion. Hampton even went so far as to introduce a resolution calling for the annexation of Mexico (according to the Post), a move which puzzled Whigs and Democrats alike.

Hampton's main concerns as a congressman, however, were with appropriations for rivers and harbors, and with the sagging Pittsburgh economy.

In an impassioned plea for the repeal of the British tariff, Hampton described the ability of British suppliers to deliver Scotch pig metal to Pittsburgh and Cincinnati for $25 a ton, while Allegheny suppliers could only manage to deliver their product for $33 a ton.

"By these means," Hampton argued, "thousands of our honest, industrious mechanics and laborers will be thrown out of employment, and their wives and their children turned out upon the world to beg or starve."

Such dire arguments failed to move Congress, but they did manage to get Hampton re-elected in 1848, despite the Post's claim that "Hampton might utter mournful harangues from this time until doomsday" and still not find a Whig convert.

The Post was particularly harsh on Hampton in the 1848 campaign: "His words come from a cold and hollow heart — and they fall from his lips as a voice from the dead! Alas, poor 'Mournful Moses!'"

By the middle of his second term, Hampton had grown increasingly frustrated with Congress' inability to focus on the economic circumstances of the North due to its preoccupation over the slavery issue.

"Six months have elapsed since Congress met," Hampton reported to a Whig Convention in 1850, "and what legislation has been had for the benefit of the country? Nothing, absolutely nothing, that could not have been done in one month."

Citing such frustration, as well as the hardship of the "pecuniary sacrifice" he had made by leaving his law practice for so long. Hampton resigned from Congress before the end of his second term.

Moses Hampton returned to Pittsburgh with the intention of staying out of politics, and resumed the practice of law with his son, John H. Hampton, who had been admitted to the Bar shortly after his father's resignation from Congress.

Within three years, however, the Whigs called on Hampton again — this time, to stand for election as President Judge of the District Court of Allegheny County. Again facing an incumbent, Judge P.C. Shannon, Hampton was endorsed by the Gazette as having "(a) long and varied experience at the bar, combined with a rich fund of legal lore and talents of the highest order." In the 1853 election, Hampton beat Shannon, 4,807 votes to 3,969.

A Practical, Yet Principled Judge

In his new role as Judge, Hampton was said to have been a "patient listener" on the bench; indeed, more likely to listen than to deliver speeches. His peculiar disposition toward scholarship made his opinions more erudite than those of most judges in his day.

While he viewed controversies from a practical perspective, delighting in the settlement of cases more than in their litigation, he held closely and seriously to certain underlying basic principles of justice, and was known to have expressed his indignation at the use of the law to work injustice, all practicality aside.

In fact, he viewed his insistence on principled justice as eminently practical. In ruling on a claim of property damage which resulted from one Wood Street resident digging a basement which undermined the house of his neighbor in Dunlap v. Wallingford (1854), Hampton explained the practicality which lay at the foundation of the principle of law:

The common law, which is said to be the perfection of human reason, has adopted the maxim of civil law, that every man must so use his and enjoy his own, as not to injure and destroy the rights of property of another. And this maxim is founded on the plainest principles of common justice, without whose observance the very basis, not only of security, but of government, would be destroyed, and the whole fabric fall to pieces... (A) rigid adherence to this just and simple rule cannot be too strongly or too frequently urged upon our business community, as its careful and conscientious observance would prevent much litigation, trouble, and expense.

Although Judge Hampton's legal acumen was respected all over the state, he was once reversed by the Supreme Court in a case in which he had thrown out the verdict. Justice Black of the Pennsylvania Supreme Court chided Judge Hampton for not giving the Supreme Court any support in the record for his decision, and cited, of all precedent, the original Moses himself.

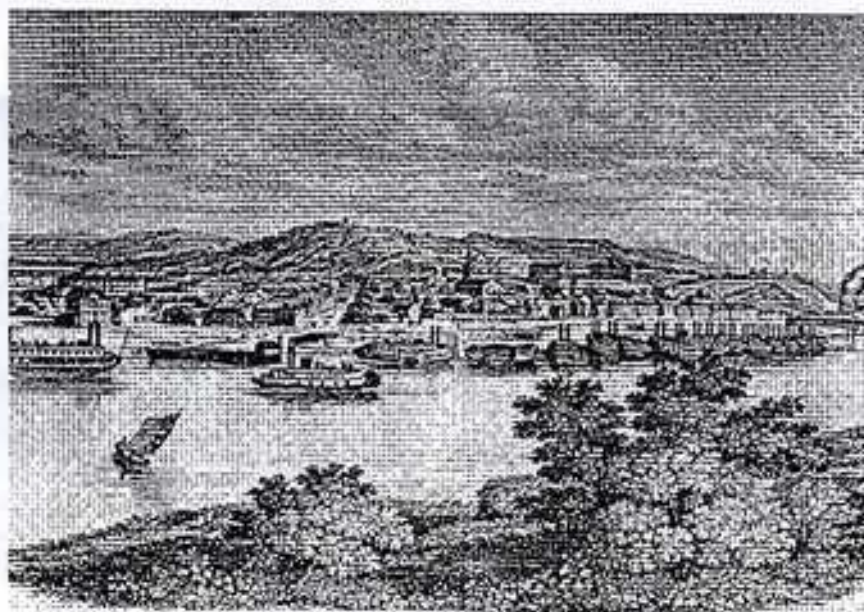

Hampton had no patience for the Supreme Court's technical nonsense, particularly since he felt that the technicality had been employed by the Supreme Court against the cause of justice. Referring to a statement in Justice Black's opinion which alluded to the judgments of the other Moses, the biblical leader of Israel, Hampton responded sarcastically:

I have looked carefully into the practice of that distinguished Supreme Judge of Israel, for some light on the subject of reserving questions, but have not been able to find a solitary case, during the administration of justice for a period of forty years in the wilderness, in which he reversed the judgment of the inferior courts because the questions were not properly reserved. Nor can I find, after the most careful examination of the "Lamentations of Jeremiah," any complaint against the judges of Israel for not reserving their questions of law in a more formal manner.

Justice Black clearly should have known better than to argue with Moses Hampton about the Bible.

As the Whig Party had all but disappeared by 1858, Moses Hampton was nominated by the new Republican Party, and re-elected as President Judge. In 1873, the 70 year old judge received a letter from 38 lawyers, including John Dalzell and William C. Moreland (both of whom succeeded him in the practice which would become Buchanan Ingersoll), pleading with him to delay his retirement and allow his name to be placed in nomination once again.

Judge Hampton gave his permission, but this time faced considerable opposition from within the party. After three ballots at the Republican nominating convention in 1873, Judge Hampton lost the nomination to Thomas Ewing, who would eventually be elected as his successor. Hampton graciously yielded centerstage, retiring to his home in Wilkinsburg and devoting his later years to biblical study.

On June 24, 1878, Hampton died. The announcement of his death at the various Common Pleas Courts in Allegheny County resulted in the adjournment of all Courts immediately. The members of the Pittsburgh Bar gathered for his funeral a few days later, taking a special train from Pittsburgh to Wilkinsburg, and following the funeral procession from there to Allegheny Cemetery.

His pall-bearers included Wilson McCandless, the man he beat in the Congressional race in 1846, and Judge Thomas Ewing, the man who beat Hampton in the Republican nomination for President Judge in 1873. John Dalzell delivered a eulogy, and Hampton was laid to rest in the family crypt. The crypt can be found today (though it is marked only by the inscription "Hampton and Miller," a reference to a family offshoot), in a dark, remote section of the Cemetery. Today there are no more Hamptons left to care for the site. Moses Hampton's legend lives on, however, on the 57th Floor of the USX Tower, through the casual gesture of the folks who named our dining room in his honor.

The Much-married Miner and Younkin Family-by Mark A. Miner

In the April 30, 1938, edition of the YOUNKIN FAMILY NEWS BULLETIN, publisher Charles A. Younkin made a matrimony promise, of sorts. He wrote: "In future issues, we hope to tell you much of the inter-married families [including]...the Younkin and Miner."

But the promise was not fulfilled, for reasons that are not yet known. Although several more editions of the Bulletin were published after 1938, little about the much-married Miner and Younkin families ever made it into print. This is unfortunate, because there were at least five weddings of the two clans in the 1800s. A published review of these couples would have been very useful to family researchers then — and now.

Publisher Younkin would have had a keen interest in the topic himself because he was a twice-removed product of such a marriage. His paternal great-grandparents were Leonard and Martha (Minerd) Harbaugh. As well, the author of this article is the product of two of the marriages: Jacob and Catherine (Younkin) Minerd, married circa 1802; and their son, Henry, who married Mary Polly Younkin in the 1830s.

Why the Miner and Younkin families were so intermingled is not precisely known, but some evidence does exist. Both apparently had common German origins — the original spelling of Miner was "Meinhard," later shortened to "Minerd," while the original spelling of Younkin was "Junghen." Both families settled and grew in the late 1790s and early 1800s on farms near Kingwood, Somerset County, Pa., and in some cases were next-door neighbors. Census, deed and estate records show that Miner and Younkin names abound.

Below is a list of five known 19th-century marriages and their offspring. Individuals' names are spelled as they would have been during their adult lives.

- Catherine Younkin (1787-1847), daughter of John and Catherine (Killicher) Younkin. She married Jacob Minerd (1780-1842) in about 1802. They lived on a 500-acre farm near Kingwood. Their children were:
 1. John Miner (married #1 Sarah Ansell, 6 children; m.#2 Hannah Ansell)
 2. Burket Minerd (m. Susan Hartzell)
 3. Henry (m. Mary Polly Younkin, more later)
 4. Laura Minerd (m. John M. Younkin, more later)
 5. Jacob Miner (m. Rachel Ansell, one daughter)
 6. Charles Minerd (m. Adaline Harbaugh, 9 ch.)
 7. Catherine Minerd (m. Harrison Barnhouse, 5+ch.)
 8. Joel Miner (m.#1 Margaret J. Leighliter, m.#2 Catherine Seneff, 5 ch.)
 9. Eli Minerd (m. Mary Ann Baer, 6 ch.)
- Henry Miner(1809-?), son of Jacob and Catherine (Younkin) Minerd. He married Mary Polly Younkin (1810-?), whose parents are unknown. Wed in the 1830s, they left Kingwood about 1852 and ultimately settled in Greene County, Pa. where they died. Their children were:
 1. John Minerd
 2. Ephraim Miner (m.#1 Joanna Younkin, ; m.#2 Rosetta Harbaugh, more later)
 3. Chance Miner (m. Martha J. Jones, 4 ch.)
 4. Harrison Miner
 5. Susanna Miner (m. Samuel A. Birch, 9 ch.)
 6. Jacob Minerd (died in infancy)
 7. Andrew J. Miner (m. Mary Louise Johnston, 4 ch., ancestor of author)
 8. Nancy Minor (m. Spencer Farabee, 8 ch.)
 9. Catherine Miner (m. John Bedillion, 5 ch.)
 10. Sarah A. Miner (m. Fred Kreger)
 11. Elias Minor (m. Elizabeth King, 5 sons)
- Laura Minerd (1813-bef 1880), daughter of Jacob and Catherine (Younkin) Minerd. She married John M. Younkin, (1803-aft 1880), son of Jacob and Eleanor Younkin. They were married about 1832 and lived near Kingwood. Their children were:
 1. Charles Younkin (m. Sarah)

Sod house is my memory first.
I'm sure it can't be called the worst.
Next in line of bygone years mark my word
It can be remembered but need not be heard.
Twelve years I lend myself to books, matriculated Finally I find myself in a country school
'Twas my duty to teach and to rule.
The Army then called and I didn't shirk,
When it was over I returned to school and to work.
In teaching it happened a girl I found—
My judgement in this was very sound.
It was wonderful for a youth of twenty-eight
Even if she said you have a year to wait.
Her wishes were good she said "I liked the farm."
Times were tough but it caused us no harm.
We found a farm that needed a home.
This caused us to buy and not to roam.
Six years we worked and a little girl we found.
What a blessing it was to have one around.
Two more girls were added in time—
More blessings I can't think of for this old rhyme
Time came and we had to retire
From a lovely home that we came to admire.
Years flew by and we were called to celebrate Fifty years of wedded fate.
The girls planned this day with care
And many came with friendship to share.
With ten grandchildren we can relate
And two great grands we are pleased to state
And sixty years to celebrate with mother past eighty and Dad hits ninety
This is elation beyond our estimation.

Ephraim Miner (1839-1921), son of Henry and Mary Polly (Younkin) Miner. His first wife was Joanna Younkin (1846-1875), daughter of Herman and Susan (Faidley) Younkin. They were married after the Civil War and lived near Kingwood. Their children were:

1. William Lincoln Miner (not married)
2. Freeman Grant Miner (not married)

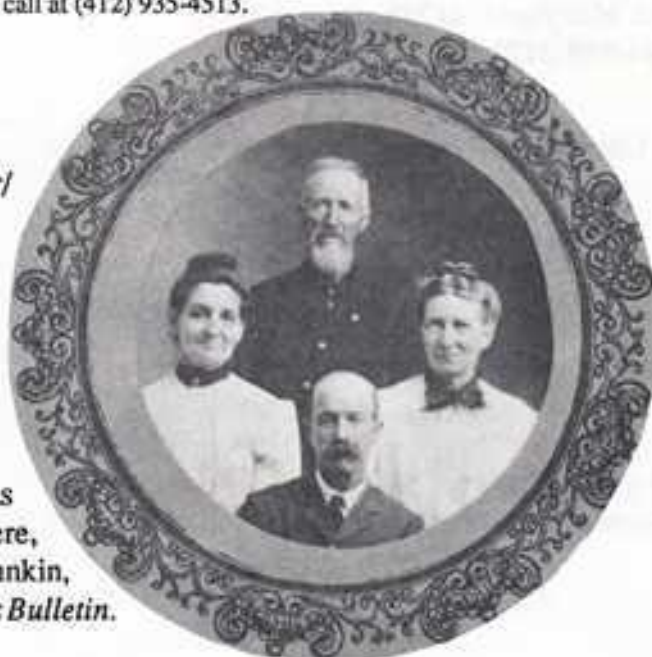

Ephraim later married Rosetta Harbaugh and had three more children: John Andrew, Harry David, and Minnie Edna Miner.

Lucinda Harbaugh (1856-1940), granddaughter of Leonard and Martha (Miner) Harbaugh, and daughter of David and Mary Magdalena (Whipkey) Harbaugh. She married William Dayton Younkin (1857-1910), son of George A. and Charlotte (Younkin) Younkin. Married in the 1870s, they lived near Mill Run, Fayette County, Pa. Their children were:

1. Laura Bell Younkin (m. Jacob Shroyer, 8 ch.)
2. Charles Arthur Younkin, original YFNB publisher (m. Saloma Hall, 5 ch.)
3. George Osborn Younkin (m. Verona Matiben)

There may be no better example of the Miner/ Younkin connection than the individuals in this photograph. Counterclockwise, from top: Ephraim Miner and wife Rosetta; and Andrew J. Miner and wife Mary Louise. Ephraim and Andrew were brothers; their mother was Mary Polly (Younkin) Miner, and their grandmother was Catherine (Younkin) Miner. Ephraim's first wife was Joanna Younkin; his second wife, shown here, coincidentally was an aunt of Charles A. Younkin, publisher of the original Younkin Family News Bulletin.

WHO'S WHO IN THE MINERD-MINER-MINOR FAMILY

Prepared for the 80th Anniversary Celebration of the First-Ever MinerD Reunion

August 21, 1913, Ohiopyle, Pa. - July 10, 1993, Kingwood, Pa.

The first members of our family to settle in Western Pennsylvania were Jacob MinerD Sr. and his wife Maria Margaret Nein. They moved to near Mill Run, Pa., in 1791, built a log cabin and cleared land for a farm. They moved there from Emmitsburg, Md., where they had briefly lived after beginning their married life in Oley Twp. near Reading, Pa., where both had grown up. Jacob's parents, Friedrich and Eva Maria Meinert, had settled near Reading after emigrating from Zwillinge, Germany, sometime between 1730 and 1734. From 1791 forward they spelled their name "MinerD" -- a unique spelling which distinguishes this family from any other in the United States.

Jacob and Maria MinerD had 12 children, of whom 4 settled nearby: Jacob MinerD Jr., who married Catherine Younkin and lived at Kingwood; Martha MinerD, who married Jacob Imel and Leonard Harbaugh Sr. and dwelled at Cranberry Glade near Scullton; Henry MinerD, who married Hester Sisler and resided at Dunbar; and an unidentified daughter who married John Ream, founder of the village of Ursina in Somerset County. Frederick MinerD, another of the pioneers' sons, lived near Sego in Perry County, Ohio.

Over the years the MinerD family grew by leaps and bounds and scattered in many directions. Several groups dropped the "d" from the name and simply spelled it "Miner" and "Minor." On Aug. 21, 1913, their descendants gathered at Ferncliff Park in Ohiopyle, Pa., for the first-ever MinerD Reunion, and more than 65 people attended. Allen E. Harbaugh gave a speech about the history of the family. Today, descendants and spouses number well over 6,000.

Here is a list of the first four generations of the family. Can you spot your line?

Jessie Schultz Ward

Former clerk at Fashion
Hosiery in Washington

Jessie E. Schultz Ward, 78, of Thomas Campbell Apartments, Washington, died at 9:40 p.m. Wednesday, July 28, 1993, in Canonsburg General Hospital after a three-month illness.

Born January 25, 1915, in Washington, she was a daughter of Harry O. and Armenia Cain Miner.

Mrs. Ward was a clerk at Thompson's Hardware and later worked at the Fashion Hosiery store, both in Washington.

She was a long-time member of the Christian Missionary Alliance Church in Washington and the Willing Workers Class of the church.

Until she became ill, she was an active volunteer at the Thomas Campbell Apartments.

On May 24, 1933, she married Jack E. Schultz, who died May 6, 1977. On March 17, 1991, she married Kenneth W.W. Ward, who survives.

Also surviving are two sons, Douglas F. Schultz Sr. of Washington and Jack D. Schultz Sr. of Hollywood, Fla.; three daughters, Patricia, wife of the Rev. Warren Crawfis of Fort Wayne, Ind., Deanna, wife of the Rev. Richard C. Meloy of Pensacola, Fla. and Karen E. Andrews of Fayetteville, Ga.; two stepdaughters, Mrs. William R. (Karen) Crawford of Claysville and Mrs. Carl (Donna) Chadwick of Florida; one brother, Edward Miner of Washington; one sister, Anna Neeley of Clairton; 17 grandchildren; 20 great-grandchildren; five stepgrandchildren; three stepgreat-grandchildren; and several nieces and nephews.

Deceased are two brothers, Odgar and Orlan Miner; two sisters, Ollie Plants and Grace White; two grandchildren; and one step-grandchild.

This is the great aunt whose funeral I attended the same day as the Yonahkin Reunion. She and her mother first got me interested in family history in 1971 when they told me some old stories. Then, in 1975, Aunt Jessie really got me going when she gave me an old photo album and told me to "go find out about those people."

Relationship of Submitter to Husband

Wife

Aug. 3 Mrs. Catherine Miner Rose 1922

Mrs. Catherine Rose, aged 93 years and 8 months, died at Uralna from the infirmities of age. Her maiden name was Catherine Miner. She was born in Somerset County on November 27, 1828. In early life she married Charles Rose, a veteran of the Civil War, who died in 1913 at the advanced age of nearly 90 years. She is survived by the following children: Wesley, Grant and Levi Rose, who reside near Uralna; Mrs. Sarah Firestone and Mrs. Levi Durst, Uralna; Mrs. Samuel Thomas, Confluence, and Mrs. Jane Burgess, Coraopolis. She is also survived by a large number of grandchildren, great-grandchildren and several great-great-grandchildren. Mrs. Rose, notwithstanding her great age, enjoyed good health until the last. She was highly respected and loved by a large circle of friends. Funeral, Saturday, July 29, at Uralna, Rev. C. W. Baker, Jr., officiating. Interment in Jersey cemetery.

collected all of the borough police were about so W. R. Bower was deputized to make the arrest. "Hilly" grabbed his gun and started for the freight yard and found five men on the train. He picked his man and after telling him what he might expect if he tried any funny business, alone and unaided marched him to the lock-up. The latter took him to Connellsville where he was identified and taken to town. Lowe, the victim of the assault, although he has a fractured skull and one side of his face badly battered, is expected to recover. Bower, although a small man, has lots of sand.

Prosperous School District.

The supervisors of Lower Turkeyfoot Township, A. W. Conn, J. B. Colborn and C. L. Goff and the auditors of the same municipality, C. B. Hyatt, Frank Whaley and Samuel Robinson, met at Hotel Dodds, Monday, and settled their accounts for the year. The township has a surplus of $400 above all liabilities. This is a good showing for a small township. The tax rate for the ensuing year 10 mills.

Union Revival.

The union revival meetings in the Baptist Church are well attended. Monday evening was the Baptist evening at which Rev. W. A. Wissinger, the pastor of the church, preached. Tuesday evening was Lutheran evening, when Rev. E. E. Oney preached. Wednesday evening was under the auspices of the Christian Church. So far there have been large congregations and much interest manifested in the meetings. While the Baptist church is the youngest and smallest congregation in town, its members are devoted and miss a Sunday in attending. The pastor is present.

Good Entertainment.

On Tuesday evening Miss Garnet Cox gave the first number of the course of entertainments under the auspices of the Ladies Aid Society of the Lutheran Church. Miss Cox gave a number of fine selections that were much appreciated. The church was well filled. The next entertainment will be given Wednesday evening, January 17, by Miss Sumayah Attiyeh, in her native, or Syrian, costume.

Minor Mention.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Little, who were visiting at Braddock, returned home Tuesday.

The Indiana Normal school students who were visiting here returned to their studies Sunday.

Dr. C. P. Large, representing the State Board of Health, was here Monday. Dr. Large reports this section of Somerset County free from all kinds of contagious diseases.

Miss Edna Augustine, who teaches school at Keyser, W. Va., and Miss Edith Augustine, a teacher of near Markleysburg, spent Thanksgiving with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Augustine here, and returned to their school duties Sunday evening. Both young ladies are efficient instructors.

P. W. Bell of Pittsburgh spent Thanksgiving with his mother-in-law, Mrs. Margaret Burgess, and returned to his home Saturday evening.

T. R. Brown spent Thanksgiving with his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Michaels, at Somerset.

Mr. and Mrs. Grant Pyle were at Somerset Thursday, attending the funeral of the former's grand uncle, Josiah Pyle, aged 73 years, one of the prominent citizens of the county.

a visitor here Tuesday.

Charles Minder who is employed at Cumberland is visiting his mother, Mrs. Mary Minder, and will remain several weeks.

James McClintock, one of the substantial farmers of Addison Township, was a visitor here Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Little, who were visiting their children at Braddock for five weeks, returned home Tuesday.

Charles J. Harrison Jr., a young business man of Somerset, was transacting business here, Tuesday.

Mrs. I. T. Huff returned last week from a two weeks' visit in New York.

Miss Bertha Davis and Mrs. I. T. Huff were here Wednesday on the way to Somerset to the D. A. R. meeting.

URSINA MAN KILLED ON RAILROAD TRACK

William Rose Struck by a Train While on the Way to His Work.

William Rose of Ursina, was killed by a train on the Western Maryland Railway about a mile West of Confluence on Monday morning. He was employed by the Laurel Mining Co. at Shipley station, near where his body was found. He had been at his home at Ursina Saturday night and Sunday, and was likely on his way to his work. While the family resided at Ursina, he had a shanty near the mines, where he stayed during the week and usually spent Sunday at home.

When the body was found, the back part of the skull was crushed in, his hip broken and his chest all bruised and broken. The remains were taken Monday forenoon to A. R. Humbert & Son's undertaking rooms at Confluence and after being prepared for burial were taken to the home at Ursina.

William Rose was born in Upper Turkeyfoot Township and was a son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rose, the latter of whom still survives, being nearly 30 years of age. He was born December 15, 1866, and was 49 years, 11 months and 19 days old at the time of his death. He married Miss Margaret Liebliter who with five children, survives him, the surviving children being Ray, Clarence, Marie, Verna and Tessie, the oldest not being over 15 years of age. He is also survived by three brothers—Levi, Wesley and Grant Rose—and four sisters—Mrs. Samuel Thomas, Mrs. Jane Burgess, Mrs. Anna Hurst and Mrs. Sarah Ann Firestone.

William Rose was a hard working industrious man and his sudden death is much lamented. Funeral Wednesday at the family home, Ursina, Rev. J. T. Davis officiating.

URSINA NEWS NOTES.

Pleasant Birthday Party.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Younkin gave a very pleasant birthday party on Tuesday, November 25th, in honor of their daughter Virginia's fourth birthday. A good number of juveniles were present and the little folks enjoyed the evening. The refreshments consisted of ice cream, cake and taffy. Prof. Harvey Diehl, the popular principal of the public schools, was also one of the guests and enjoyed the party as well as any of the younger ones. The children around were: Ruth, Elmer, Martha,

EPHRAIM MINER.

Ephraim Miner, a veteran of the Civil War, and a citizen of Upper Turkeyfoot township, died at his home Friday morning, March 11th, at 5 o'clock at the age of 83 years, 6 months, and 10 days. Mr. Miner was a son of the late Henry Miner of Upper Turkeyfoot township, and a life long citizen of this township. He has been ailing and in failing health for several years, and his death is due to old age and a complication of diseases.

The subject of these remarks was a private in Company D, 142nd Regiment Pennsylvania Volunteers, and for many years a member of the G. A. R. Post No. 210 of Somerset. He was enrolled into the country's service on the 1st day of August, 1862, and discharged from the service on the 1st day of July, 1865, being a pensioner for many years, and during the last six months made application for total disability pension of $72 per month.

Mr. Miner was twice married. On the 28th day of October, 1866, he was married to Joanna Younkia, daughter of the late Herman Younkia of Upper Turkeyfoot township, she departing this life on the 25th day of March 1875. To this union were born two sons, William Lincoln and Grant Miner, both surviving and residents of this township. On the 27th day of March, 1877, he was united in marriage with Rosetta Harbaugh, daughter of the late David Harbaugh, who survives him with the following children: John Miner of Scullton, Harry Miner of Upper Turkeyfoot township and Mrs. Jacob Gary, of Scullton, besides many relatives and a host of friends. He has eleven grand-children to mourn his departure. Father Miner in young manhood, before he entered the war gave his heart to Jesus Christ, and united with The Church of God at Old Bethel, in Upper Turkeyfoot township, with which Church he has been a life-long and faithful member.

Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon, March 13th, at Kingwood, conducted by his pastor, the Rev. W. S. Shimp. Rev. Shimp spoke eloquently to a large audience, which had gathered to pay their last respects to our old friend and neighbor, from the following text: "Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth." Rev. 14:13. Interment in the Kingwood I. O. O. F. Cemetery.

MINER

SOMERSET MAN DIES

736
SOMERSET, May 22—Lincoln Miner, 62, died Wednesday at his home in Upper Turkeyfoot township.

XMAS 1937

180
ROCKWOOD, June 4 — Grant Miner, 61, died Tuesday afternoon at his home in Turkeyfoot township after a brief illness. Mr. Miner, who was unmarried, is survived by his stepmother, Mrs. Rosetta Miner of Upper Turkeyfoot township; two half-brothers, John of Fayette county and Harry of Upper Turkeyfoot township, and one half-sister, Mrs. Jacob Gary, also of Upper Turkeyfoot township.

The funeral service was held this afternoon at the Kingwood Church of God with Rev. J. I. alp, pastor, officiating. Interment was in Younkin Cemetery.

A GROUP OF FATALITIES.

DEATHS IN THE PIT AND ON THE RAIL.

Frightful and Fatal Fall of Andy Turley.
The Notorious Dr. F. M. Cook Killed.
John Younklin's Bad Luck.

Last week was prolific of fatal accidents, illustrating a curious observation that such calamities usually come, not singly, but in groups. Hardly had the victim of the Scottsdale shooting been consigned to his grave than word was received of the death of Andy Turley, who fell down the West Leisenring coal shaft; and following this, on Sunday morning, was the news that Dr. F. M. Cook had been run down and killed by the cars near Uniontown. Added to these, came intelligence, last Friday morning, of a wreck on the east end of the Connellsville road in which John Younklin, a locomotive engineer residing here, was seriously if not fatally injured. Our readers were told of the Scottsdale shooting in the last issue of the COURIER. The remains of Robert Percy, the victim of Lawrence Peacock's reckless aim, were interred in the Bethel cemetery at Tarr station, Saturday afternoon. A special train was run from Greensburg and other points on the Southwest railroad, and between 300 and 400 people attended the funeral, which was one of the largest ever seen in that community. The dead man was a member of the rolling mill assembly of the Knights of Labor, and was buried by that body.

Connellsville Keystone Courier

DEATH IN THE MINE.

Between five and six o'clock, Saturday afternoon, Andrew Turley, boss hauler at the West Leisenring coal shaft, while coming up on the cage with a mule, fell off the cage when about 200 feet from the bottom and was instantly killed. Mine Boss Anderson, who was at the bottom of the shaft and saw the unfortunate man alight, picked him up at once, but he was lifeless. Both arms and his jaw were broken, but death resulted from internal injuries. It is supposed that the mule kicked him off the cage. Deceased was 35 years of age and leaves a young wife, parents, brothers and sisters and a host of friends to mourn his loss. Squire Lytle and a jury consisting of Harry Rader, James Stiner, Robert Nelson, Frank Clark, Alex. McCance and John Wiant, held an inquest and rendered a verdict of accidental death. Turley was a general favorite at the works, and his funeral which took place on Monday was largely attended, the employees laying off in a body to attend. Rev. S. W. Morledge preached the funeral sermon at West Leisenring, whence the body was conveyed hither, attended by the mourners and friends, and interred in the Chestnut Hill cemetery. The pall bearers were all bosses as follows: S. B. Price, Jr., superintendent; W. C. Reynolds, assistant superintendent; J. F. Anderson, pit boss; Mark Watson, assistant pit boss; Frank Clark, fire boss; Robert Nelson, assistant fire boss; James Rockwell, assistant yard boss; James Stiner, store manager. Turley's young wife was a Miss Shaw, of this place, sister of the wife of Cooper Percy, who was shot and killed at Dawson a year or so ago.

RUN OVER ON THE RAIL.

Dr. Francis Marion Cook, a well-known character about Uniontown, was run down and killed by a night shifting engine on the Baltimore and Ohio railroad, near Evans station, about five o'clock, Sunday morning. Just how he came to be walking the track at that hour is a mystery, but the fact that he had a case of instruments with him gives rise to the suspicion that he was out on shady professional business. The mangled remains were brought here on the church train at ten o'clock and by the same train, on its return, taken to Uniontown. An inquest was held and a verdict of accidental death rendered. The remains were interred in the Baptist cemetery at Uniontown, Tuesday afternoon. Deceased was 45 years of age. He was a native of Georgia, born of wealthy parents and reared and educated in luxury. The war reduced his family and he came north at its close, locating in Uniontown where he kept the Clinton House awhile. He subsequently came to Connellsville where he practiced medicine with some success. For the last dozen years or more he has been a resident of Uniontown, where his polished manners and dissipated habits marked him as a character. He has figured in court several times for abortion, and served a term in jail for his connection with a Scottsdale case several years ago. In spite of his degradation, however, he retained his perfect manners to the last.

AN UNLUCKY ENGINEER.

John T. Younklin is a Baltimore and Ohio locomotive engineer of high repute. He has had several hairbreadth escapes on the Connellsville division, but his usual luck deserted him this time. A westbound freight, due at Hyndman at 2 o'clock last Friday morning, arrived behind time, expecting to run into the siding there and clear the track for the eastbound Baltimore express. But the east end of the siding was blocked with cars and the freight train was compelled to run on and back in at the other end. This consumed all its margin of time. The train had barely gotten into the siding when the express came thundering down the mountain at the rate of thirty miles per hour. In the hurry and excitement the flagman either neglected to close the switch or did not have time to do so, and the flying passenger train ran into the siding and collided with the freight. The occupants of the freight engine jumped and escaped. Those on the passenger locomotive were not so lucky. The fireman saw the danger and made a desperate leap for life through the cab window, escaping with a few bruises. Younklin, the engineer, attempted to get off his engine, and had swung himself to the steps, but he was too late. Before he could jump, the engine came together with a tremendous crash, throwing him violently between his engine and its tender. While in that position, the rebound of the cars crushed his hip and injured him internally. He was brought to his home here the next day. He is still living, but his life hangs by a very slender thread.

JOHN YOUNKIN'S MOTHER

STRUCK BY THE MAIL AND KILLED

While Carrying Flowers to His Grave
How the Sad Accident Happened.
Story of Mrs. Younkin's Life

The east bound mail which left here at 9-08 for Baltimore and Washington, on Tuesday morning, blotted out one life under circumstances peculiarly pathetic. The train left the depot on time. As it neared Gibson station, the quick, jerky "hoot! toot! toot!" of the locomotive whistle, as the train flew along, was the signal for every passenger's head to be poked out of a window. A great many people in town heard the signal and knew that some one was on the track. But those on the train and at the station soon knew that an old lady had been struck and killed. Who she was, and how it happened, was what made the fatality particularly noticeable.

"It's Johnny Younkin's mother," exclaimed Engineer Will Thornley after he with the other trainmen, had run back to lift the quivering remains from beside the track.

"Who's she?" asked several passengers.

"Only an old lady going down the track with a bouquet of flowers to place on her son's grave," was the reply as the brave trainmen turned aside to hide a tear.

"And who was Johnny Younkin," asked others.

"As brave a boy as ever opened a throttle or reversed a lever on this line," said the trainmen. "He was mortally wounded in a wreck at Hyndman last February and now we've killed his mother going to his grave." The lifeless boy was consigned to the care of friends; the trainmen with moistened eyes sprang on board the limited and soon were bounding up the mountain.

HOW THE ACCIDENT HAPPENED

The story of the accident as gathered from eye witnesses to the sad occurrence was as follows. Mrs. Younkin had gathered a bouquet of flowers that morning and had started down the eastbound track on her way to the Hillgrove cemetery to lay them on her son Johnny's grave. She had taken that route to avoid climbing the steep hill to the left of the track. When she had gone a short distance below Trimble's store the mail came in sight around the curve. At that time she was looking to the right side of the track. When the warning whistle blew she turned partially around. Before she could step from the track the engine struck her. The force of the blow threw her body into the air almost as high as the smoke stack of the locomotive. It then fell in the bushes some distance from the track. The train was stopped and the trainmen ran back to where her body lay. Her death had been instantaneous. Her left arm was broken, and her side was crushed in a frightful manner. The distance between Mrs. Younkin and the engine when the signal was given was so short that it was impossible to check the speed of the train. An inquest was held over the remains by Coroner Reagan. A number of witnesses were examined whose testimony was in substance what is given above. A verdict of accidental death was rendered.

WHO MRS. YOUNKIN WAS

The victim of the accident is familiarly known to every resident of town as Johnny Younkin's mother. Her maiden name was Sarah Tannehill. She was born and raised in Turkeyfoot township, Somerset county. She married Younkin and settled near Pennaville about 24 years ago. After his death she became Mrs. John Metcalf. He died a few years ago of consumption. She has resided in Conneville for about 15 years. On the day of her death she was 60 years, 4 months and 3 days old. The death of her son John was a severe blow to her. She could scarcely be reconciled to her loss. There was nothing that consoled her more than to take an offering of flowers and strew them upon his grave. She was a kind, affectionate mother. She was never more happy than when she could do a friend or neighbor any service. A family of five survives her, all of which are grown up. Her daughter is married and two of her sons are railroad employees, the other two are stonemasons. Her sister, a Mrs. Mitchell, was injured in a runaway recently from the effects of which she never recovered. Mrs. Metcalf was buried in Hillgrove cemetery on Wednesday morning. She was an earnest christian, and a consistent member of the Baptist church. A large concourse of friends were present to pay their last tribute of respect to the good mother of Johnny Younkin, the engineer.
